MRS. T. R. LICKLIDER and Mrs. Maynard Andreae arrange paper flowers in a cart on stage at the Cranbrook Pavilion. Decorations were for a French Cabaret Moulin Rouge dinner and dance given by St. Dunstan's Guild. The flowers were made at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. Andreae, chairman. Assisting were Mrs. Roy G. Leitch, Jr., Mrs. Weslaw Wright, Mrs. Richard Hintermeister, Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. John Sanders. Special lighting effects were arranged for the Evening.

FLAGS PROVIDED by the French consulate in Detroit were among the ceiling decorations for St. Dunstan's French Cabaret party. Templin Licklider and Weslaw Wright took on the job of hanging the flags and balloons. Licklider and Bob Fields acted as traditional French waiters for the occasion.

Fran Harris To Speak At February 2 Meet of B'ham Child Study Club

Special guest of the Birmingham Child Study club on Feb. 2 will be Mrs. High W. (Fran) Harris of station WWJ. On radio for 22 years, she is the first woman on radio to receive the National Headliner award.

The Study group was founded in 1941 by Betty Webb, who at that time was with the Baldwin library. For the first time in two years the group has re-opened its limited membership.

Mrs. Edgar A. Ebersole, 119 South Adams, will be hostess for the meeting at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Edward N. Hewitt and Mrs. W. N. Springer will assist as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Joiner Is Hostess At Annual Benefit Party

The annual Scholarship Benefit Party of the University of Minnesota Women's club will be held Feb. 5 at the International Institute in Detroit.

A smorgasbord luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m., followed by an accessory style show and bridge. Mrs. John Ferguson is chairman of the event assisted by Mrs. John Joiner of Birmingham, Mrs. John Krupp, Mrs. Wallace Solum and Mrs. Arthur Barry.

A Visitor from Greece

Visiting the United States from Athens, Greece, Andreas Scaramangas was a recent dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brent K. Hogshod at their Henrietta street home. Scaramangas is in this country making an extensive study of the operations of public utility services, and related fields. Mrs. Hogshod said their guest was "most impressed by American freedoms and hopes we will not let them become lost to us."

Franklinites Escape When Plane Crashes

By ANGELA DADSON

FRANKLIN—The Jack Wrefords, Crestwood drive, were injured when their plane nosed over in a forced landing in what turned out to be swampy land near Homestead, Fla. They were returning from a vacation in Havana, Cuba, when an unpredicted line squall made it imperative to land.

Friends, following in another plane, suffered the same fate. The Wrefords completed their trip by commercial airlines, leaving their dismantled plane in Ft. Lauderdale for repair of the extensive damage. Mishap or no, they enjoyed their Cuban holiday, with Havana's Seville-Biltmore hotel as their headquarters. They are entertaining plans for a vacation hop to Puerto Rico late this year.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Patrick Ryan are back from a Florida vacation. They made Sarasota their holiday headquarters. Here from Akron, Ohio as houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burkhardt of Meadowlake road last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown will be hosts to a group of friends from Franklin, Birmingham and Pontiac tomorrow night at a post-holiday dinner party at their home on Kirkland court.

The Stanley Warwick's were hosts to 20 guests from Detroit and Franklin at a dinner party at their Nottingham road home last Saturday night.

A growdy crowd turned out last Saturday night for the Community association's annual President's Ball at Bonnie Brook golf club. It appears that several groups, unwilling to quit when the hand stopped playing, gathered at various homes around the village for early morning breakfast parties.

Miss Barbara Brown was hostess to the girls of Brownie troop 340 last Tuesday for skating on Island lake and hot chocolate at the Brown's home there.

Little Miss Jean Rosiello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Rosiello of Colony Hill road, celebrated her fifth birthday last Sunday, Jan. 24.

The Franklin chapter of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association decided at the recent January meeting to hold all subsequent monthly meetings in the Community Hall.
