

Cousins 'Meet' Over Telephone For Holiday Chat

It's always nice to hear from one's family during the holidays but especially satisfying to "meet" relatives heretofore unknown.

This opinion was expressed this week by Mrs. Kirk Baldwin, 788 Harmon, who had the experience over the holiday weekend.

A long-distance telephone call to the Harmon avenue home from Mrs. Baldwin's cousin, Mrs. Herman May, in Aurora, Ill., came to this country only a little while ago, from Belfast, Ireland.

"She thinks the United States is a wonderful country and is so happy to be here," Mrs. Baldwin laughed, "I asked her to come to Birmingham to see us and get a polite refusal. She told me they had just built a new home and couldn't possibly come. It means, of course, that some of these days I'll be taking off for Illinois to visit the Mays."

WEST BEVERLY—Fog and ice gave Lt. and Mrs. Eugene Hasse a bad time on a torturous, 18-hour drive north from Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., for the holidays. They divided their five-day stay here between the Beverly road home of her parents, the Walter Hannamans, and the home of his parents, the Carl F. Hasses, on Devonshire road, where they had dinner and buffet supper on Christmas day.

The Roscoe Beringers had a little better luck with the weather man. Back in their Mayfair lane home the day before Christmas, from a three-week vacation at Pompano Beach and Fort Lauderdale, they reported ideal driving conditions both ways.

Visiting the Lawton Tabors, of Devonshire road since Thanksgiving time, is his mother, Dr. May B. Tabors, of Oak Park, Ill.

William Brian McCarthy, of Riverdale drive, just made it home for Christmas, born on Dec. 18, he joined his brother and two sisters in time to be eligible for a visit from St. Nick.

The West Beverly sewing group will meet Tuesday, Jan. 12, in the Devonshire road home of Mrs. Henry W. Welch. Cordially invited are
