SUNDAY SERMON TOPICS

SUNDAY, JAN. 10

Christian Science
The vital role of purity in spiritual progress will be set forth in the sermon, "Sacrament." The Bible selections include this from Psalms: "Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer." (19-14)

Townside Community
The Rev. John D. Rose has selected for his sermon, "What Is Faith?" His text is verses 8, chapter 18 of St. Luke, "I tell you that he will average them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth!"

First Methodist
For his sermon at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services, the Rev. Arnold F. Runkel, D.D., will preach on "Unashamed and Unafraid."

First Presbyterian
The observance of Holy Communion and the reception of new members will take place at the morning services here.

Congregational
"Pressing On!" is the sermon topic selected by the Rev. Robert D. Downey. He has chosen for his text the first 16 verses of Philippians chapter 3. Services will be held in the First Presbyterian church at 1 p.m.

Unity Center
"God Covers Your Shortages" has been selected by Frank Glabach for his Jan. 10 sermon at the Unity Reading Room, Theater building.

Unitarian Fellowship
The Rev. Russell L. Lincoln will speak on "Our Greatest Treasure Curiosity." Services will be held in the YMCA building on West Lincoln at 10 a.m.

Baptist Church Guest Minister

Considered by many to be one of America's leading authorities in the field of church management and church school administration, the Rev. Dr. Albert H. Gage of Detroit will occupy the pulpit at the First Baptist church on Jan. 10, first vacation Sunday of the Rev. Emil Kontz.

Dr. Gage, director of church extension for the Baptist forces in Metropolitan Detroit, has chosen to speak "Open Doors," using as his text Revelations 3:20.

He has held pastorates in the East and Midwest and is the author of several books on churches and church work. In addition, he fills many speaking engagements at conferences of both laymen and the clergy.

In the Detroit area his task is to aid the establishment of several new Baptist churches in sections assigned to this group by the county commission of the Detroit Council of Churches.

Church News Deadline is 5 p.m. on Thursdays.

GREEN STAMPS

Will Speak Here Wednesday Night

Making his first lecture tour through the Midwest, Gordon D. Hall will speak at the Birmingham Community House at 8 p.m. Jan. 13, under the sponsorship of the Unitarian Fellowship. His topic will be "The Hate Campaign Against the United Nations and Our Schools."

Hall, a member of the Friends of Democracy, has spent about six years doing research work on the various groups furthering Communism in the United States, especially those operating under names suggesting complete loyalty to the nation.

The young lecturer has appeared widely throughout the Boston area speaking before service clubs, colleges groups and civic and religious organizations.

Ticket information may be obtained from Mrs. Millard D. Newcomb by calling her Royal Oak home or her office in the Fox and Hounds building Bloomfield Hills.

Church Women Sponsor Cooking Demonstration

The Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Birmingham will sponsor a cooking demonstration on Jan. 12, starting at 7:30 p.m.

The session will be held in the Detroit Edison company rooms, Woodward and Roy, in Ferndale. Reservations may be made with Mrs. H. S. Roberts, 765 West Maple or Mrs. Milton J. Trap, 935 Gordon lane, co-chairman of the affair.
