NORTH ADAMS — Again this year Mrs. Charles Haas of North Adams road sent out invitations bidding her friends to a cherry party which she has made into an annual event.

Then she got busy and made cherry pies and more cherry pies. Her guests arrive with the knowledge they may pick as many cherries for themselves as they like, and of course, that piece of cherry pie is part of the refreshment of the afternoon. This year's cherry party was held last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Brigham Allen Jr., who moved not so long ago to a new home on Helene drive from Buffalo, N. Y., have recently returned from a trip to Boston and Buffalo. This week they have as their guests Mrs. Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, of St. Louis, Mo.

Last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Frank of Beach entertained guests at a lawn and barbecue party. Mr. and Mrs. Frank had as their houseguest, Mrs. Dan O'Connell, of Detroit.

Mrs. Charles T. Harris of Belvedere, Ill., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry F. Klein, of Beach road.

One of Troy township's younger citizens earned a blue ribbon at the Detroit Horse Show. Larry Glefke, son of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Glefke of Hyane drive placed first in the beginners' horsemanship class last Friday.

Last weekend was a time of celebration for Max L. Hagerman of Butternut Hill drive. On Friday, Mrs. Hagerman entertained at a birthday party for her husband. Sunday, the Hagermans and their two children drove to Flint to spend the day with Mr. Hagerman's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gainer of Manor road have returned from a weekend at Gull Lake.

The staff of Boy Scout Troop B-4 will be hosts to the members of the staff of Troop B-25 at a pot-luck supper to be held at the home of the Harold J. Chalks on Big Beaver road the evening of June 30.

Family Gathering At The Packer Macks

Daughters of Mrs. Packer Mack, 679 West Frank and their families gathered at the home of their mother last week end for a family reunion. They were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fry, the former Mary Ann Mack, of Chicago and Dr. and Mrs. Donald J. Davies, the former Kokie Mack, and daughter, Susan, of Ann Arbor.

Dr. Davies will leave today for Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, where he will enter service. Kokie and Susan will make their home with Mrs. Mack until they join the doctor.

Forest Lake Club Children to Have July 4th Program

Members of Forest Lake country club have completed plans for a special Fourth of July program, prepared especially for children.

Opening at 1 p.m., the program will begin with a period of supervised play on the playground equipment, lasting until 3:30. At this time Mrs. Wesley C. Leonard, chairman of the games committee, will present a one-hour movie program.

Another supervised play period, for different age groups, will occupy the next two hours, followed at 6:30 p.m. by a special picnic lunch, and at 7:30, a puppet show. A large display of fireworks at 9 p.m. will bring the program to its end.

"We are trying to become the best family club in the area," Mrs. L. B. Church, publicity chairman, commented.

"WHILE The youngsters frolic mothers and fathers can go out on the golf course or just relax around the terraces. Trained supervisors will take care of the children and do everything possible to show them a good time."

Mrs. Church said the customary semi-formal dinner dance would be held Saturday evening, starting at 8 o'clock. Taking reservations are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schlee, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Nickman.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
