WEST BEVERLY—Mrs. William J. Black, 18180 Kirkshire, will have the West Beverly Sewing group work in her home all day Tuesday, July 13. The ladies usually sew from ten o'clock in the morning to three in the afternoon. All area ladies are invited and asked to bring a sandwich.

Urgently needed is any cotton material that could be used for quilt patches. Mrs. E. E. George of Hillcrest and Mrs. James Leach of 14 Mile road will collect these if you will call them.

Sharon Walters celebrated her 11th birthday at her Devonshire road home with a barbecue and slumber party. Highlight of the evening was a scavenger hunt with the following girls gleefully scurrying through the neighborhood: Janet Carpenter, Lynn Chapman, Judy Kalmback, Mary Alice Williams, Calla Reasner, Karen Keene and Lenora Aldred.

Sylvia Ureel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Ureel, of Cranbrook road, was honor guest recently at a miscellaneous shower in Detroit. Sylvia will marry Arthur Shaw, of Coral Gables, Fla., on Saturday, July 10th, in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duffy, together with their youngsters, Margaret, Rusty, John and Ann, have moved from the corner of Evergreen and Riverside drive. Their new home is at 27275 Fairgrove drive, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wahle of Hillcrest road spent a busy weekend house hunting in Marshall, Mich. The Wahles and their four children, Linda, Patty, Stevie and Christine will soon make Marshall their new home. Wahle has bought a Buick agency there.

Mary Ann Stone, of Bedford road, celebrated her 11th birthday with an outdoor luncheon on Saturday, June 28. Guests were Kathy Faber, Rusty Foley, Susan Lang, Kathy Stone, Christine DeKosier, Dianne DeRover, Susan Canever, Franda Caghot, Linda Wahle, Patty Wahle, Janet Johnson and Marlene Potvin.

Congratulations to Ernest E. George of Hillcrest, who has been promoted to manager, magnetic products engineering of Carbonyl, Mickey Ureel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Ureel of Cranbrook road, is stationed in Verdun, France, where he is attached to the Army Signal Corps.

MRS. CHARLES A. MURRAY

Christ Church Scene Of Murray-Boos Rites

Margery Ann Boos and Charles Albert Murray were united in marriage at 7:30 p.m., June 26, at Christ Church Cranbrook and are now honeymooning in the White Mountains of New Hampshire.

For the single ring rites performed by the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt, the bride wore a gown of ice blue mousseline de soie trimmed with rose pointe lace and fashioned with chapel length train. A matching cap held her finger tips and veil and seed pearls accented both. She carried carnations and stephanotis.

Margery is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Boos of Detroit and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Murray of 888 Tilbury road.

THE BRIDE'S honor attendant was Mrs. Calvin R. Brown of Detroit, who wore a ballerina length white pique dress bound in light blue satin and tied with a blue satin cord. Her headdress was a blue satin open cap with a tiny veil. She carried blue delphinium and white daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward Greer of Minneapolis, Minn.; Jean M. Clark of Detroit and Mrs. Robert E. Knobe of Ann Arbor, while Marnie Greer of Minneapolis was flower girl.

The attendants wore gowns identical to the matron of honor and Marnie was dressed in a frack of white organza over blue tulle, tied with a blue ribbon sash. The flower girl carried a colonial bouquet of bachelor buttons and daisies.

GEORGE Auchterlonie of Birmingham was best man and seating the guests were Edward Greer of Minneapolis, Leo Wasserburger of Pontiac, Richard Adams and William Uptegrove of Ann Arbor.

For her daughter's wedding and reception following at Botsford Inn, Mrs. Boos chose a waltz length gown of beige starved lace with bracelet sleeves and iridescent sequins around the neckline. She had a corsage of baby's breath and green orchids. Mrs. Murray wore a blue waltz length gown of silk lace over tulle. She had rubrum lilies.

For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Murray donned a navy blue princess style dress of tissue tulle with white pique trim and white accessories.

The couple will reside in Ann Arbor in the fall.

Auxiliary Elects
Recently elected to office in Charles Edwards Post American Legion auxiliary are Mrs. Ruby Howard, president, Mrs. Hugh McHugh and Mrs. Shirley Groves, vice presidents; Mrs. George Lendzian, corresponding secretary; Miss Agnes Baynes, recording secretary; Mrs. Ann McLaughlin, treasurer; Mrs. Evelyn Lath, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Emma Miller, historian and Mrs. Mel Colman, chairman.

Don Wilkinsons Honor Son with Open House

SOUTHEAST OF BIRMINGHAM—Sunday afternoon the Donald Wilkinsons of Robinwood avenue entertained 40 friends and relatives at an open house party held in their recreation room and yard. The party was in honor of their son, Don, Jr., who recently passed his bar examinations and leaves the end of the week to accept a position with the firm of White and Case in New York City.

Paul Michaelson, nine year-old son of the Louis Michaelsons, leaves today to spend two months at camp Lookout near Elberta.

Saturday evening the Donald Vandermers invited their neighbors, the John Clarks, Lou Pedicinis and Richard Cones, to their home on Olivia for a farewell get-together in honor of the Lester Ashes who plan to move soon to their new home in Dearborn.

Last Thursday Mrs. J. J. Livingston, Jr. with her daughters, Barbara and Carol, attended the party given by the Birmingham Alumnae group of Alpha Chapter at the Orchard Lake Country club. Of the twenty children attending the party only two were over five years of age.

Pam Birchard celebrated her sixth birthday at her home on Groveland avenue last Wednesday with a traditional birthday party. The Birchards are spending part of their time this summer at their new summer place near Walled lake and part at home in Royal Oak.

The Hans Olsen family of Hembridge road spent last weekend at their cottage on Lake Huron near Port Elgin, Ont. They officially opened the cottage for the season so that it will be ready for subsequent visits.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koontz of Cooper avenue announce the birth of a second child, Mark Alan. Their oldest child, Michael Robert, will be three years old in September.

The Michael Malones of Cooper avenue spent the weekend at their lodge on the Au Sable, Mrs. Malone's sister and her family, the Clayton O'Bells of Royal Oak joined them for the weekend and will remain for two weeks.

Republican precinct delegates held their regular study and discussion meeting at the home of Al Grossa on Merrell avenue Wednesday evening. Kathryn K. Hopkins supervises their study of government.

Gloria Allison returned home to Birmingham road Saturday after spending a week with the Edward Hoener family of Monroe. Mrs. May Kleinbells of Cleveland, Mrs. Allison's aunt, is visiting her niece and family this week.

Seven Explorer Boy Scouts from north Royal Oak were in the group of 36 scouts who traveled by chartered bus to Mackinac Island. They spent a week on the island and returned Saturday evening. While there they served as color guard at the governor's summer home, manned information centers, cut grass in the park and performed chores at the museum. They attended an openhouse given by Governor Williams and despite the bad weather swam in the pool at the Grand Hotel.

Scout master Fred Holton, supervised Jim Bonner, Bob Duff, Mike Curry, Stephen Williams, John Novitch, Dennis Nichols and Fred Karakas of Royal Oak Explorer Scout Troop 11.
