Will-O-Way Play Has Good Comedy For Holiday Fare

For those who will be spending the holiday weekend at home, "Affairs of State," the second offering of the season at Will-O-Way Playhouse, will prove refreshing fare.

The amusing political and matrimonial intrigue stars Robert Bryson in the role of an upright bachelor senator who, for political reasons enters into a marriage of convenience at the suggestion of his good friend, a former Secretary of State, played by George C. Scott, with the old boy's accommodating niece.

Bettie Tati stars as the ex-secretary's niece, a bookish school-teacher, who is married off to her uncle's friend, only to be translated into a Washington glamour girl and a behind-the-scenes political power.

Of course, only the audience knows the real reason behind the uncle's conniving, a means of holding on to a considerably younger wife, who is smitten with the young senator, and is waiting patiently for her husband's untimely demise in lieu of obtaining a divorce.

THE CONCLUSION is reached happily for all save the old boy's wife, who counting her blessings, retreats with restrained dignity and returns humbly to her husband.

Adeline Hirschfeld, making her debut at Will-O-Way, plays the senator's wife.

Also in the cast are Red Schaffer as the butler, and Roy Wentworth as the blustering and effusive present secretary of state. "Affairs of State" is produced and directed by William W. Merrill.

The performance schedule for this week, and the holiday weekend is nightly at 8:40, except Mondays when the theater is closed. Reservations can be made at the office and tickets will be held there until 8:15 p.m. the night of the performance.

"The Curious Savage," starring Treva Way Merrill, George C. Scott, Bettie Tati, Robert Bryson, Freddie Morris in the principal roles, will open Tuesday evening, July 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders To Reside in Florida

Salome Britton Selover became the bride of Second Lt. William Bradford Saunders Saturday afternoon in Christ Church Cranbrook. The vows were heard at 4:30 p.m. by the Rev. Robert DeWitt.

Her antique Kative satin gown was fashioned with a V-neckline and yoke of lace embroidered in seed pearls, a fitted bodice and short sleeves. The princess line skirt was draped in the back to a bustle bow falling into a train over the tiered skirt of pleated silk illusion. She wore an open lace cap, embroidered in seed pearls with full silk illusion finger-tip veil. She carried white roses and stephanotis.

Sally is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willis Budd of Vaughan road, Bloomfield Hills. Lt. Saunders is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Woodruff of Puritan road.

VIRGINIA BUDD was her sister's flower girl. She wore a white organdy dress with sprigs of pink roses. She carried a small bouquet of carol aming roses and a wreath of the same in her hair.

Nancy DeWeese of New York City was maid of honor in a waltz length blush pink chiffon gown with a shirred bodice. She carried a cascade bouquet of briarcliff roses.

Acting as bridesmaids were Mary Grindley, Julie Otter, Mrs. Ronald Ballantyne and Millicent McIntyre, all of Birmingham, Jean Davenport of Jackson and Janet Reinstein of Chicago. They wore blush pink chiffon gowns with folds to the square neckline, crossing at the back and hanging in waist length streamers. All attendants wore blush pink hoehair straw bands with short veils and carried cascade bouquets of pink bouffant roses.

ROBERT N. Woodruff, Jr. was best man. Seating the guests were David Hastings of Wilmington, Del., Allen E. Bagg of Old Greenwich, Conn., Richard Beglin of Elizabeth, N. J., Frederick Oversch, John Ballantyne and Ronald Ballantyne.

The mother of the bride wore a moonstone blue silk taffeta dress with a fitted skirt and a pale pink flowered hat. She had carnations pinned to her purse. Mrs. Woodruff wore champagne silk organza and had tea roses.

For traveling the new Mrs. Saunders wore a black and white checked gingham dress and jacket, trimmed with bands of black velvet and white lace ruching at the neck and sleeves.

They left for Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., for one month and will live in North Miami for the duration of Lt. Saunders' service in the Marine Corps.

A picnic on the day of the wedding was given for Sally and Bill, the bridal party, and out-of-town guests by Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Rothman and Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Walter.

UNITED STATES

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty, to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Over Independence Day weekend let's not forget the "Blessings" we as Americans have inherited through the foresight of the Founding Fathers. For this heritage was born July 4, 1776 as they declared "When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary . . .". In our hearts let's give thanks and reaffirm our belief in what they bequeathed.
