WALNUT LAKE—The success of the recent fair given by the Walnut Lake PTA was the main topic of the final meeting of the fair committee held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morton, Middlebelt road.

Present were Miss Marjorie V. Jested, school principal, Charles Robinson, financial manager for the event, Mrs. Perry Gruber, Mrs. Elissa, two years, and Mrs. John N. Shabedian, for the PTA president, and the Morton's.

The committee wishes to extend their sincere thanks to all who contributed so freely of their time and effort, and especially to the Girl Scouts for their services all during the day. The fair proved to be the biggest and best so far. Profits will be used to reward the safety patrol and service squads. The student council will also benefit.

Welcome to new neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clayton, of South Clunbury drive, whose family includes Douglas, four and a half years, two years, and a half year, six months old. Clayton is with the Power Equipment company of Detroit.

On Wednesday, June 16, Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps held a joint student recital in the Walnut Lake road home. Piano students participating were Donnie Warren, Arthur W. Emrich, Windy N. Shabedian, Martha Koskinen, Janis Phelps, Christine Layman, Karen Overgaard, Billy Symon, Laura Szymke, Jill Morton, Ann Soltis, and Rube Alik. Trumpet selections were played by Billy Noeh, Eddie Nickel and Billy Noeh. A ballet ball dance was performed by Nancy Phelps.

The John Phelps entertained the Michigan Composers club at a supper on Sunday, June 28. Afterwards, the guests listened to tape recordings and played new compositions.

Among those present were Mark Wessels, composer and concert artist, who now lives in this area. John Matthews, Detroit Symphony bass player, and Clark Eastham, president of the group.

The executive board of the Walnut Lake Women's club is planning a family picnic for club members on Thursday, July 15, to be held at Sub No. 1 at six o'clock.

The Christmas group for the Women's club bazaar next December is meeting every Friday at the home of Mrs. Julian Offenstien on Putnam drive. The linen group meets with Mrs. Janis Sanborn, Sr., on Lakeshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, of Inkster road, were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter, relatives from Miami, Fla. The guests enjoyed a week's stay, during which time they attended the graduation ceremonies of their son from Lincoln high school in Ferndale.

Girl Scout Troop 360 spent the week of June 21 on a pioneer camping trip at the Highland recreation area. Due to the illness of the Scout Troop leader, Mrs. James E. Roberts, the girls were accompanied by Mrs. Julian Offenstien, chairman of the Troop committee, who took over responsibility for the project.

Mrs. Albert Smith, of Detroit, and Senior Scout Judy Franklin, of Huntington Woods, ably assisted.

AMONG THE YOUNGSTERS presented by LaBelle Dance studio in a recital Friday evening at the Community House were Georgann Skurtu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Skurtu of Chapin avenue, and Pamela Jean Banners, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Banners of Smith street.

Travel to AF Base

Mrs. Willis H. Hackman (Joanne Bennett) and son, Bela, left June 27 to join her husband at Peperell Air Force Base in Newfoundland, where he is in charge of the dance band. Mrs. Hackman and Bela have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Bernat of Pierce street, and will be in Newfoundland for two years.

swimming party and picnic at her parent's lakeside home. Eagerly awaiting the last two weeks of July, which she will spend at camp O'Mara, Port Sanilac, is Susan Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Eastmoor drive.

enjoying the rugged outdoor life were Mary Ellen Davis, Kay Graber, Jewell Offenstien, Estella Kieck, Margaret Roberts and Laura Szymke.

The J. K. Westerfields, of East Hartmoor, moved into this neighborhood during the winter months, and are now busy in their garden at every spare moment. Their family includes a large, very well-behaved boxer named "Brandy". Westerfield is connected with the D. P. Brother advertising agency, in the General Motors building.

On Wednesday, June 30, Joyce Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Westmoor road, celebrated her seventh birthday with a bang-up party. Because Joyce did not want to leave out any of her friends, invitations went out to the whole first grade.

The Robert Stevensons of Walnut Lake road, journeyed by car to Darlan, Copp., to be present at the high school graduation of Joan Smith, sister of Mrs. Stevenson. They also spent some time with relatives in Meridan and New Haven, Conn., and stopped over at Niagara Falls.

Beverly Noeh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Noeh, of Walnut Lake road, will be a counselor at the Christmas Seal camp near Ann Arbor, during the last two weeks of July, and the first two in August. Billy Noeh will participate in the Birmingham YMCA summer program.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Victor Gauss have just taken over their new home on South Clunbury drive, and are busy getting settled. They moved here from Detroit, where Gauss is connected with the Detroit diesel engine division of General Motors. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. McKim, of Lansing, parents of Mr. Gauss, arrived on June 19, and Mrs. McKim stayed on for a visit.

Sandra Overgard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Overgard of Walnut Lake road, entertained members of the Tiara club at a
