MRS. FARNSWORTH KEITH BAKER, JR.

Spoke Vows Saturday In Garden Ceremony

The garden of her father's West Bloomfield home was the setting for Sally Marel Allen's marriage Saturday to Farnsworth Keith Baker, Jr.

The bride descended the steps from the two-level Connecticut style home to meet the bridegroom beside the pool at 4:30 p.m. There they repeated their vows to the Rev. Harold E. Towne of St. James Episcopal church.

Sally is the daughter of Mrs. Mildred H. Allen of Delray Beach, Fla., and Dwight P. Allen of Walnut Lake road. Her husband's parents are the Farnsworth Keith Bakers of Falmouth, Mass.

An Italian antique pure silk ankle length wedding gown was the bride's choice. The portrait neckline was edged with beehive infantia lace, and the same lace formed a princess cap which held her tiered illusion veil. She carried white orchids and stephanotis.

HER only attendant was Joyce Coner of Marblehead, Mass., a Phi Kappa Phi sorority sister at the University of Maine.

University of Maine. She wore a waltz length frock of ice blue lace and a tiny matching veil. Her bouquet was of shaded delphinium.

John M. Mixon of Falmouth, Mass., a Theta Chi fraternity brother of the bridegroom at Maine University, was best man.

After a motor trip through Canada, the couple will make their home in Falmouth. In September they will enter their senior year at the University of Maine.
