MRS. WILLIAM C. HUBBARD

French Imported Lace Worn For Hubbard-Wagner Nuptials

Barbara Jane Wagner and William Caley Hubbard exchanged vows at 5:30 p.m., Saturday, at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Flint.

The bride ascended the aisle in a gown of French imported alençon lace over net and tulle. Floral appliques were reembroidered on the lace and pearls embossed the skirt. The design was repeated on the bodice which was fashioned with a portrait neckline. Her tiered French illusion veil was attached to a matching cap. She carried stephanotis.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Wagner of Flint, formerly of Birmingham. Her husband's parents are Dr. and Mrs. William B. Hubbard of Flint.

Sister of the Bride, Nancy Carolyn Wagner, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Susan Buckingham, Mary Lynn Ross, Louise Olmstead and Gretchen Meier. Attendants were gowned alike in aqua princess style gowns of French imported organdy. They carried California pink daisies and purple daisy astors trailing from French baskets.

Thomas Caley, cousin of the groom was best man. Seating the guests were Harry Wagner of Birmingham, cousin of the bride; Michael Gregor, Mark Turpin, James Neithercut, John Barnes and Donald Johnson.

Maids in Blue Satin Attend Friday Bride

A waltz length gown of white lace and net was worn by Marlene Joyce Cutler for her marriage to Lawrence John Schrader, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schrader of 1962 Sheffield road. Marlene is the daughter of Mrs. Mildred Weldon of Detroit.

The Rev. E. H. Buchheimer performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m., June 25, at Our Saviour Lutheran church.

The bride's gown was fashioned with lace bodice and tulle net skirt over a satin underslip. Pearl buttons trimmed the long sleeves pointed at the wrists and the bodice had a semi-scoop neckline. Her fingertip tulle veil was fastened to a pearl tiara and she carried white roses.

PATRICIA Carpenter of Oak Park was maid of honor and Carol Breiner of Detroit and Anna Mae Walker of Farmington were bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in waltz length gowns of blue antique satin with halter type bodice, shrug jackets and semi-picture hats. Patricia's bouquet was of pink roses and the bridesmaids carried pink whole and split carnations.

Susan Quay, ten year-old junior bridesmaid, wore a matching blue dress with a sweetheart bodice and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Joseph D. Schrader of Clawson was his brother's best man. Ushers were Ronald Boland and Richard Minch of Detroit and Pat Keegan of Berkley.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue and black silk print tailor dress with matching poodle jacket and black accessories. Mrs. Schrader chose a powder blue lace dress with pink accessories. Both mothers carried pink roses.
