

California Honeymoon Follows Petoskey Rites

On a two-week honeymoon in California are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collins Page, who were married at 2:30 p.m., July 10, at the Petoskey Presbyterian church.

Formerly Sally Lou Hubbard, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hubbard of Petoskey. Richard's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Page of 559 Townsend street.

The bride chose a floor length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle with Peter Pan collar and long pointed sleeves. Fan-shaped panels of lace were set into the skirt of the gown. A tiara of pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried sweetheart roses on an ivory prayer book.

SHIRLEY HUBBARD was her sister's maid of honor in pastel blue taffeta gown. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Bridesmaids Sally Covey and Sandra Stanach of Petoskey wore frocks of wheat colored taffeta and also carried deep red roses.

Clemson N. Page, brother of the groom, was best man. Seating the guests were Joseph F. Page, Jr., Pierre Fuger, Jr., Warfield Curry and Burnham Caulkins.

Mrs. Hubbard received her guests in a navy lace over beige taffeta dress. Her accessories were of beige. Mrs. Page wore a light blue print dress with white accessories.
