

Fete Janet Hills At Bridal Parties

A round of pre-nuptial parties were brought to a climax Wednesday afternoon for Janet Adrienne Mills when Mrs. William M. Milligan of Fairfax road entertained at a miscellaneous shower.

Anne Jameson and her mother were hostesses at their Cranbrook road home for a linen shower. A kitchen and bathroom shower took place at the home of Mrs. Charles R. Obermeyer on Kennesaw road.

An "around the clock" shower was planned by Millicent McIntyre Saturday at her home on Puritan road. The laborer road home of Judy Thomas and her mother, Mrs. Joseph Treat Thomas, was the scene of the spinster dinner on Monday.

A DINNER Friday evening at the Fox and Hounds will follow the rehearsal.

Janet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Mills of Suffolk road. Her fiance, Donald Erwin Haack, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin William Haack of Milwaukee, Wis.

The wedding will take place at 2 p.m. Saturday, July 17, at the First Presbyterian church. A reception will follow at Oakland Hills Country Club.

MRS. EDWIN G. ALEXANDER

Marriage Rites Read At St. Mary's, Denver

A waltz length gown of champagne chantilly lace was worn by Lynne Nolta for her marriage to Edwin G. Alexander on July 3 at St. Mary's church, Denver Colo. A Juliet cap held in place her shoulder veil and she carried pink roses with white stephanotis.

Mildred McCarthy of Denver, maid of honor, was dressed in white eyelet over pink taffeta, with a pink hat and pink carnations. Jack Lamb of Denver was best man.

A breakfast at the Park Lane hotel followed the ceremony, after which the couple left for a honeymoon at Jackson Hole, Wyoming, and Yellowstone National Park. They will reside in Denver.

Lynne, who has been making her home in Denver, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Nolta of 17832 Dunblaine road. Edwin, also of Denver, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Alexander of Greeley, Colo.

Ernest Younkin Family Back from Fishing Trip

SOUTHEAST OF BIRMINGHAM—Trout fishing lured the Ed Miller family of Lexington, Ky. north last week. They stopped over night at the Robinwood avenue home of the Ernest Younkins and traveled with the Younkins to Kalkaska where the two families spent a week fishing.

Margaret Halfman and Juanita Ebling of Olivia avenue returned home last week after spending a week at Hubbard lake. They report excellent fishing.

The William W. Simpsons and their son, Tom, returned to Robinwood avenue last weekend after a two week vacation at Miami Beach.

Last Friday the Arthur Dawes of Robinwood avenue drove to Chicago to put their son, Frank, and daughter, Judy, on the train to Dixon, Neb. The children are to spend the balance of the summer visiting their maternal grandparents, the Frank Lisies, at their farm near Dixon.

Ila Farrell of Cleveland arrived Thursday to spend the weekend with the Richard Swarts of Groveland avenue. An evening at Willow-Way Playhouse has been planned for the guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward K. Gillespie of Hampton road announce the birth of a fourth child, Richard Kirk, June 25, at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac. The baby weighed 7 pounds 2 ounces at birth.

Rickie Flath, age five, and Loren Flath, age three, welcomed their new brother, James William, to their home on Hembridge recently. James was born June 21, at Holy Cross hospital, Detroit. Maternal grandparents are the David G. Massads of Detroit.

According to Mrs. Richard Cone, a path is being worn between her home on Olivia avenue and Muskegon this summer. Her sisters' families, the George Ferrells and B. W. Arntz of Muskegon, started the trail in June when they came for the wedding of their niece, Louise, daughter of the Arthur Raishes of Adams road. Since then, the Cones have spent a week in Muskegon with the Arnts family. Mary Farrell returned to spend several weeks with the Cones and Nancy Cone plans to return to Muskegon for a visit with her cousin, Mary.

Walter Burkens of Edinwood Hills Country club, won $100 last week when he placed fifth in the Motor City Open Tournament at the Meadowbrook Country club. From July 15 through the 18, he plans to compete in the Carlings Open Tournament at Willoughby, Ohio. July 21 through the 27, will find Burkens in St. Paul, Minn., where the annual PGA Tournament will be played on the Keller golf course. Burkens is the defending champion of this tournament which he won last year.
