Tape Recording Gives News of Son in Korea

BY DIRBY SMITH
Staff Correspondent

NORTH ADAMS—The Ralph Beales of East Square Lake turn on their tape recorder to hear from their son, Lt. Robert O. Beale, who is stationed in Korea. Both parents and son converse thru this medium. One of the recent messages the Beales received, is the news that Robert has been given the Command Assignment of the British Commonwealth Division in northern Korea.

Mrs. Beale has just finished a stint of jury duty in Pontiac. One night not too long ago, she said, she answered the ringing of her door-bell. There stood a uniformed officer with a summons in his hand ordering her to be in Circuit Court the next morning for jury duty.

She was there as she had been ordered. Her luncheon partner and fellow jury member turned out to be a childhood friend from her home town of Rutland, Vt., Keithie Mrs. Beale nor her friend knew that the other resided here.

Mrs. John J. Southard left Tuesday with the Mesdames Marion Bossa, Erma Crabb and June Foote. At the end of the visit at Grand Bend, Mrs. Foote will go east to visit her daughter in Schenectady, N. Y., then on to her home in Rutland, Vt.

On Sunday Mrs. Southard said good-bye to her son and grandson as they left on a trip. John Southard and his son, Bobbie, left for Boise Blanc island in Lake Michigan. Southard has taken 14 Boy Scout Explorers with him. The group will return to their homes on Friday. On Sunday, Bobbie Southard, will leave for a two-week period at the Boy Scout camp at Brighton.

Mrs. Ernest J. Cole entertained guests at a luncheon in her home on Butternut Hill drive on Wednesday of last week.

The William T. Arlunds of East Square Lake road were mighty surprised when 16 of their friends arrived simultaneously Saturday evening. The guests came laden with the fixings of a delicious barbecue dinner and birthday celebration, for they had come to wish Mrs. Arlund many happy returns of the day.

parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percival G. Bizby of Derby, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wardrop of Beach road are entertaining house guests this week. Mr. and Mrs. John D. Culbertson III arrived here from Sewickley, Penn.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
