

Kiwanis Groups Plan Dedication Of Youth Shelter

"This shelter was erected by the Kiwanis Club of Southfield and dedicated to the young of the community," is the inscription on the plaque mounted on the fireplace at the Southfield Park.

The bronze plaque was presented at the joint meeting July 7 of the Kiwanis Clubs and Kiwanis club, when the women's division served dinner for all.

The ladies were responsible for a good share of the money raised for the shelter and were on hand at each Kiwanis work session to prepare and serve dinner.

Started in 1949, the bulk of the work has been done by the Kiwanis club who scheduled "bees" Wednesdays, their regular meeting dates, and Saturdays.

THE LOGS for the shelter are old utility poles, furnished by Detroit Edison. The concrete floor was furnished by the township officials with employees donating the labor. The large fireplace dominates one end of the building.

A formal dedication of the shelter has been set for 2:30 p. m., Aug. 8, when the public is invited to attend. The park is located between Evergreen and Southfield roads, on Beverly.

Birmingham-Made Hooked Rug Graces Eisenhower Shrine
Mrs. Thelma Templemeyer Ranke, 1436 Pierce, has returned from a visit to her home town, Denison, Texas, where she presented a hooked rug to the Eisenhower Foundation, to be used when the former home of President Dwight D. Eisenhower becomes a national shrine.
The rug was designed for Mrs. Ranke by Mrs. Pearl McGowan of West Boston, Mass., one of the foremost in this field.
In making the rug at her home here last winter, Mrs. Ranke invited others to play a part in commemorating the home of the President by contributing materials for it.

AMONG THE most interesting contributions was a quantity of yarn from a home spun wool sheet 75 years old; yarn from a century-old shawl and parts of a coat owned by a direct descendant of Miles Standish.
Foreign countries represented by material include Australia, Scotland, Canada and Germany. States contributing are California, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, New Jersey, Ohio, Oklahoma, Michigan and Texas.
Mrs. Ranke has made a second rug for a national shrine, this to be placed in the Lincoln home at Springfield, Ill.

Terns-Long Rites Solemnized July 3

Cumberbunds of turquoise encircled the waists of white nylon tulle pleated gowns worn by Joanna Mary Long's attendants for her July 3 wedding. The girls wore matching headdresses of turquoise flowers and carried small bouquets of white carnations and ivy.

The bride and groom, Joseph Lawrence Terns, Jr., were married at a nuptial high mass at 10 a.m. at St. Anthony's shrine, Duns Scotus college.

For her wedding, the bride wore a waltz length gown of tulle and chantilly lace. Her illusion veil fell from a Juliet cap studded with seed pearls and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis.

JULIE GIRARDOT was maid of honor, with Barbara Clark and Mrs. Charles Ambabo as bridesmaids. Attending the groom were John Murray, Jr., best man, and Edward Olshansky and Tom Terns, ushers.

Joanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley William Long of Oakland drive. Joseph is the son of Mrs.

Joseph Lawrence Terns of Dearborn and the late Mr. Terns.

For the wedding and reception following at Red Run Golf club, Mrs. Long wore a natural colored lace dress with toast accessories. Mrs. Terns chose old rose with navy accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

For traveling to northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Terns wore a turquoise pin checked sailor dress with white accessories. The newlyweds will live in Dearborn.
