Kindergarten Teacher Married at St. James

Wedding rings and vows were exchanged by Wilma Charlene Kaiser and Willard Eugene Barrett in a noon ceremony July 10 at St. James church, Ferndale. The Rev. Leonard Partensky officiated.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Charles Kaiser of Ferndale, Wilma is a kindergarten teacher at Torry school. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Andrew Barrett of Detroit.

The bride's floor length gown was fashioned of white tulle over taffeta with V-waist and full skirt. The wide neckline was appliqued with venise lace trimmed with pearls, as were the short tulle sleeves. A cap of shirred nylon tulle appliqued with the same lace and pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations, roses and English ivy centered with a white orchid.

Beverly Ann Kaiser was her sister's maid of honor, assisted by bridesmaids Mary Louise Barrett, sister of the groom. They were waltz length frocks of white swiss embroidered organdy over pale blue taffeta tied with blue taffeta sashes. The wide necklines and short sleeves were embroidery trimmed and their hats were rocker style with tiny blue flowers at back. They carried colonial bouquets of daisies.

Best man was Orrin Barrett, brother of the groom. Ushering were Robert Willrett of Hinckley, Ill., cousin of the groom, and James Gaskin.

Mrs. Kaiser chose a pale blue lace over taffeta dress with full, flared skirt, sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. Blue and white accessories blended with her white orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore rose lace over taffeta with V-neckline and flared skirt. Her accessories were rose and white and she pinned on a white orchid corsage.

FOLLOWING a reception at Rotunda Inn on Pine Lake, the couple left for a week's stay at Hotel Macatawa on Lake Michigan. They will reside at 3228 Belle court, Royal Oak. For traveling, Mrs. Barrett donned a pale blue linen dress trimmed with white, with navy and white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Pre-nuptial parties honoring Wilma were given by Carolyn Wright of Lower Long Lake, Mrs. Lawrence Nunes of Ferndale and two surprise showers by her kindergarten classes.

JANE ANN NEWYAHR, daughter of Mrs. W. E. Newyahr of Fairfax road, recently became a hostess for Cadillac Airlines when she received her wings at a graduation luncheon at the Washington Aviation club, Washington, D.C. She has been assigned by the airline to fly out of the Detroit station.

Bit O' Verse

A LITTLE BOY'S ROOM

The rain on the pane and the tick of the clock,
And the beat of my heart pounding faster,
Where memories cling as I sit here and rock
And yearn for the sound of his laughter.
In this very room, where his childish delight
And his needs were my dearest command—
Where his fear of the dark made him cry in the night
And beg for the warmth of my hand,
Are the remnants of hope . . . where effort is lost
In the tasks that were labors of joy:
The mending of socks and the picking-up host
One constantly is to a boy,
Are gone with the passing of youth to his prime—
Whose need now the world but to master;
Yet, to those like myself, the moments sublime
Were the days when the greatest disaster
Was a blood-stained knee that had to be kissed,
Or a chest that needed a plaster.
Now I sit in review of the sadly missed
And fondle the discarded treasures;
No tousled head on a pillow white
To bless with the love Heaven measures:
All gone with the passing of time in its flight,
And with it a little boy I kissed Goodnight.

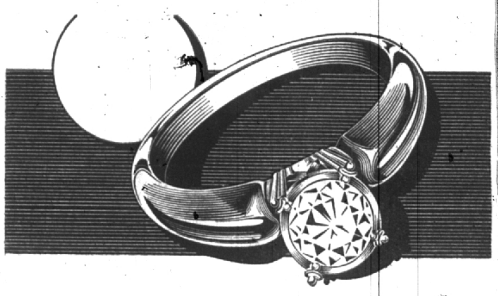
Four Reasons Why...



Fine Diamonds Can't Be Sale-Priced!

1 The supply of fine diamonds is just sufficient to satisfy the demand. There is never a surplus of these treasures of the earth. Gem diamonds are actual rarities. Ten tons of diamond ore yield LESS THAN ONE-HALF CARAT of gem-quality stone.

2 A diamond's permanence makes quick selling unnecessary. Diamonds do not deteriorate, do not wear out, do not depend on seasonal purchasing. Always and ever, they are desired—and desirable.

3 Diamond miners, cutters, and importers permit prices to fluctuate only within narrow limits. This makes the diamond market completely non-speculative. You are assured that the diamond you buy now will be valuable a century from now. Remember, of all the types of personal adornment offered to you, diamonds may be re-sold for the highest percentage of your original investment.

4 Rare as the diamonds themselves is the man with knowledge, skill, and art to cut and polish them. Such men spend their lives making rough stones into flashing brilliants—and naturally their services are costly. Then, too, diamonds can be cut only with other diamonds—themselves expensive.

A reputable jeweler has no such thing as a sale-priced diamond—and these facts explain precisely why. We price our diamonds fairly and choose them for the ultimate in color, cut, clarity —because we know diamonds.
