

MRS. DONALD ERWIN HAACK

Wedding Reception At Oakland Hills CC

Oakland Hills Country Club was the scene of the wedding reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Donald Erwin Haack following their marriage at 2 p.m. July 17, at the first Presbyterian church. The Rev. Robert S. Graham officiated at the service.

Formerly Janet Adrienne Mills, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Mills of 267 Sutherland road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin William Haack of Milwaukee, Wis.

GOWNED in her sister's dress of white chantilly lace, the bride was given in marriage by her father. The dress was fashioned with bateau neckline and illusion yoke, with long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The full skirt met in scallops over a panel of nylon net in front.

A pearl trimmed bonnet of gathered illusion held in place a fingertip veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Perry E. Morgan of Macon, Ga., was her sister's matron of honor. Her white lace gown over pale blue tulle was ballerina length and featured a tuxedo neckline and cap sleeves. With it she wore blue linen shoes and a royal blue headband covered with white lace and a small veil. Her flowers were white carnations tied with royal blue streamers.

BRIDESMAIDS were Judith Thomas of Bloomfield Hills, Linda Werneke of Evanston, Ill., former roommate of the bride at the University of Wisconsin, and Nancy Hosen of Milwaukee, cousin of the groom and also a former roommate of the bride.

Their gowns were identical to the matron of honor's and their accessories were pale blue headbands and pale blue streamers on their bouquets.

Robert Joseph Haack of Milwaukee, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Ushering were Perry E. Morgan of Macon, Ga., Robert Gerholz of Flint and Douglas Mayne of Marion, Wis.

The bride's mother chose a bal-

Forest L. Teenagers Name First Slate; Plan Fund Raising

First president of the teenager's group at Forest Lake country club is Marcia McLintock, 1084 Washington.

Other officers of the group are Samy Simpson, vice president; Betty O'Malley, recording secretary; Joy Beedell, corresponding secretary; Roger Caldwell, treasurer and Bill Sechman, sergeant-at-arms.

The entire slate was chosen from among the non-college group, in order that they may remain in active contact throughout the winter months.

First step planned is the establishment of a treasury to provide funds for social activities. The initial enterprise will be a sale of 24-karat golf tees.

It has been decided to meet July 22, to select a group name.

Leaving This Week For Eastern Trip

A visit to the Shrine of Ste. Anne de Beupre, near Quebec, will highlight the eastern trip of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wiercinski, 1115 Melton, who leave this week for the first vacation trip since their marriage eight years ago. They will return to Birmingham after two weeks, coming through Vermont and New Jersey, where they will make brief visits in Brandon and Irvington.

During their absence her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wasiński will be at the Wiercinski home, caring for the three children.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Haack of Milwaukee, Mrs. Robert Mills of New Canaan, Conn., grandmother of the bride, and Hugh A. Mills of New Canaan, uncle of the bride.
