The season of travel is in full swing and there are streams of tanned faces and relaxed bodies (mixed with a few tired ones) wending their way back home. Among those recently returned are Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly of Auburn drive who were vacationing at Lake Muskegon at Lake City. With them were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Groom of Birmingham. Also joining the Kellys and their children was young Billy Perkins who flew here from Dayton. Billy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Perkins, former Auburn drive residents.

Others returning late this week will be Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Juddersma of Arlington who have been vacationing in northern Michigan with their children, Diane, Tommy and Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Werstine and their children, Pat and Chuck, will be returning after a two week vacation on Mullet lake.

Returning last week from a motor trip through Michigan were Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rich of Kirkshire with their son, Jim.

Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor, with their daughters, Virginia and Caroline, and Nancy Streib, all of Sheridan drive have recently returned from a three weeks trip to of Buckingham this week are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Crotty of Milwaukee.

Former Birwood road residents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ulrich, who moved to Cleveland over a year ago, were the guests last weekend of their former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Good. With the Ulrichs were their two children, Aris, 3 1/2, and Tommy, one year old.

Sunday, July 18, was the birthday of Linda Jean Pollock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pollock of Birwood. Linda Jean was three years old and celebrated by inviting her friends, Steve Good, Teddy Trevilian and Terry Cantrell to share cake and ice cream with her.

Visitors last week at the Percy W. Guest home on Kirkshire were Mrs. Guest's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mowatt of Ionia.

More travelers are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pravel and their daughter Marcia, who will be returning the first of the week after a vacation on Traverse Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Moody of Kirkshire will be returning after two weeks vacationing with their sons, Craig and Pete, on Lake Huron in Canada.

Also returning this weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dewar with their children, Robin and Jane, after a week's stay at Spring lake with Mrs. Dewar's parents.

Hollywood, Fla., where they report, the weather was ideal.

The Naylons' son, John Duke, is at present on a motoring and camp-out trip in northern Michigan with two of his University of Detroit fraternity brothers. His companions are Bob Zimmerman of Royal Oak and Garth Stanton of Birmingham.

Janet Nechman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Nechman of Arlington, is visiting in Allen Park at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Teyhall. The Nechmans' son, Bill, is in Indianapolis, visiting his aunt, Mrs. Walter Teyhall.

Enterprising Youngsters Stage Neighborhood Show

A perfect way to beat those midsummer doldrums was found last week by an enterprising group of Hillcrest road youngsters, who staged a variety show par excellence in the R. J. Lakatos basement recreation room.

Co-producers of the show were Virginia Detwiler, Lakatos, and the cast consisted of Louise Hohmeyer, Judy Andrews, Jimmy Hohmeyer, Joann Lakatos and Judy Trade. Mrs. Lakatos assisted with refreshments and provided a curtain made from sewn-together bed sheets.

Mothers were amazed to see the feverish activity for a week before the show, as their offspring typed programs, dreamed up the script, and concocted costumes from old ballet and Halloween outfits. Highly elated by their initial success, members of the troupe are planning a dramatic production for their next venture.

A combined birthday and farewell party was given at the Cunningham July 10, by his parents, the W. O. Cunninghams, of Balmoral drive. A June graduate of Michigan State, Dick reported for army training Tuesday. Just before he left, he and his wife go constantly, visiting friends in Chicago, Nauvatack and Grand Haven.

Three-year-old David Lindsay, of Kirkshire road, has a new baby brother, Donald James, born July 2. The boys' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Aler Lindsay.

Showing complete impartiality so far as our water wonderland is concerned, the William Blacks, of Kirkshire road, spent the weekend at Roaring Brook Inn, at Harbor Springs, and later visited the Martin G. Chapin on Michigan's opposite coast, at East Tawas.

Mr. Stewart Barton and daughter, Connie, of Dunblaine road, have recently returned from a week's auto trip to Springfield, Vt., where they visited Mrs. Barton's mother, Mrs. Edward Bernardin.

Back from a two-week wedding trip are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shaw. She is the former Sylvia Ureel, of Excelsior, and they were their July 10 wedding, the Shaws traveled east where they visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shaw, at Darien and Milford, Conn., and a short stay in New York City.

The Stephen J. Manhards returned to their Hillcrest road home last week from a three-week eastern trip with their sons, Tom and Rick. Their itinerary consisted of a stop at Niagara Falls; a visit to his former home near Clayton, N.Y., and to his parents and brother, the Ormond H. Manhards and Ormond H. Manhard, Jr., in Boston; a trip to Gloucester, Mass.; stops at his friends at Darien and Milford, Conn., and a short stay in New York City.

Busily packing for a trip west is Kay Madonna, of Bedford road. She leaves Saturday on a 37-day Chet Sampson tour which will take her through most of the west's national parks, to ranches where mountain horseback trips are planned, and to Hollywood, where the group will meet movie celebrities.

A visitor in the Jack Andrews' Hillcrest road home last week was Margaret Schmiedley, of Sheboygan, Wis., who came over from Ann Arbor, where she is working toward her master's degree. Former classmates at La Crosse State Teacher college, Mrs. Andrews and Miss Schmiedley renewed their friendship over a few rounds of golf.

A brand new gadget which is getting a good workout in the Andrews household is a rotisserie, Andrews' prize for winning the second flight of the Birmingham invitational golf meet, held the weekend of July 17 at Birmingham country club.

New neighbors at 1824 Kirkshire road are Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Sperling, who moved from Mt. Prospect, Ill. three weeks ago with their daughter, Patricia, 18, and son, Robert, 11, and Richard, 12. Sperling is state representative for Hager potteries, and is a member of the Elks.

On June 25, the day after Don Dimock, Jr. left for army training at Camp Chaffee, Ark., the Donald Dimocks headed east with their other two children, David and Judy, for a two week visit with relatives and friends in the Boston area.

They are back in their Sunnyslope drive home now, after visiting Mrs. Dimock's mother, Mrs. John Coy, in Colchester, and friends in Scituate and Auburndale, their former home.

(Editor's note: Virginia Detwiler, West Beverly correspondent, has returned home on vacation and has resumed writing the area column.)
