BARBARA DROEGE MI 6-0431

Just back from a weekend spent at Point Pelee, Canada, at the lake cottage of the P. J. McNeils of Detroit, the Her- man L. Martens decided to do a little entertaining of their own. And so on Tuesday evening, July 20, they entertained all the employees of their gift shop in Detroit and their families.

Guests included Mrs. Madeline Meener and her daughter, Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Clemons, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Simmons, Lou Quindros and Mrs. Grace Fleming, Mrs. Marten's sister-in-law and house guest.

The high point of the evening was when the guests surprised Mrs. Martens with a birthday cake and presents and the traditional "Happy Birthday" song!

Wednesday, she and Mrs. Fleming, welcomed Dr. and Mrs. Porter Traverser from Herrin, Ill. and her sister, Mrs. Edith White of Detroit for luncheon. Weekend guests, the Don Leaks and their three children, Diana, Tommy and Barbara, from Ambia, Ind., arrived Saturday evening to round out a full week of entertaining!

Still unpacking their belongings are the F. O. Lawrence's, new residents at 7110 Parkhurst lane. The Lawrence's arrived here July 19th from St. Paul, Minn. They have two married sons, Parker, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Douglas, who lives in Ann Arbor. A merchandising man with a background of experience at Wolf and Dessauer in Fort Wayne and at the Emporium in St. Paul, Lawrence is now merchandising manager for the Crowley-Milner company.

The Ronald Bevers entertained the Jack Kennedy's of Flint last Thursday evening at the Birmingham Country club. After dinner the foursome returned to the Bevers home for an evening's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Newman of Lincoln drive returned Saturday afternoon from a week in the white of Michigan's upper peninsula. With no plans in mind other than fishing and relaxing, they made their way to Drummond Island in the north channel of Lake Superior. The fishing was not extra special but the relaxation was wonderful! Mrs. Newman said they saw many deer but no bears, although they are numerous in that area and she was amazed to learn that on such a densely wooded island there are no squirrels since there are no oak trees!

Detroiters who came to the "country" last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Treatout and their son from Detroit, who spent the day at the Edward Coleman home on Wedgewood drive.

Mrs. Walter A. Markin welcomed her sister, Mrs. Leon Ormes from St. Johns, for a short visit the first of the week. Mrs. Ormes is making her stop-over at the Markin residence, her final stop in
