Bride Selects Eyelet Embroidered Organdy

Mrs. J. Bert Peabody of Birmingham attended the wedding of her grandson, Ralph L. Peabody of East Lansing to Delores M. Stevenson of Denver. The wedding took place at 4 P.M., July 4, in the Mary Sabina chapel of the Central Methodist church, Lansing. The Rev. Charles Richey of the Milford Presbyterian church performed the double-ring ceremony.

Also attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Luther E. Heacock, aunt and uncle of Ralph, and Clyde, Ralph's uncle, all of Birmingham. Other guests were from Beloit, and Janesville, Wis.; Sheffield, Ala.; Kansas City, Mo.; Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Flint, Davisburg and Detroit.

DELORES is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Stevenson of Kansas City, Mo. Ralph is the

A. W. Collins Home

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Collins of Colonial court have arrived home after a five weeks vacation to Washington, D.C., Williamsburg and Miami. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Collins of Miami came back with them and will stay the rest of the summer.

son of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Peabody of Davisburg, formerly of Birmingham.

Delores selected a waltz-length gown of white eyelet embroidered organdy of the bride's design, with white satin cummerbund. She wore a white organdy Juliet cap with an illusion veil and her semi-colonial bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Cousin of the bride, Patricia Birt of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was the honor attendant. She was dressed in a light blue organdy waltz-length gown with a cummerbund of blue satin. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. A circle of pink roses was worn in her hair.

ALFORD PEABODY, of Lansing, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Ushers were Phillip A. Stevenson of Sheffield, Ala., and Frank Peabody, of East Lansing, brother of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stevenson chose a street-length dress of blue marquisette over taffeta with white shoes, hat and bag. She wore a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Peabody selected a street-length dress of flowered nylon over taffeta. She wore white accessories. She had a gardenia corsage.

Refreshments were served at a reception held immediately following the ceremony in the parlors of the church.

A wedding trip was taken in Michigan. The couple are living at 3817 Lilac, East Lansing.
