Eagles, Browns League Leaders In Farm System

The Browns and Eagles continue to dominate Little League farm system play as the season draws to a close.

The Eagles remained on top in the American league last week with a 1-0 win over the 49ers, a previously undefeated nine. John Sterns was the winning pitcher.

The Browns also beat the Wildcats 2-1 in a remake game of one rained out earlier in the season. The 49ers will play the Packers in the season's finale to determine whether the Eagles will have to share the crown or hold lone possession.

Mike Emery's homer and an eight-run inning gave the Lions a 2-5 victory over the Packers.

In the National League the Browns held on to first place although they lost a non-league contest to the Bulldogs, 19-4.

PAUL TURK of the Bulldogs homered while claiming four hits in nine times at bat. Gary Poole also homered for the Bulldogs.

The Bisons rallied in the last half of the sixth inning to down the Colts, 7-6.

Tracy Southworth and Dave Harvie both hit round-trippers to lead the Texans to a 10-2 win over the Redskins.

One regularly scheduled game remained in each league this week with six games to be replayed because of postponed games.
