MARY BARTON of Bloomfield Hills, (left), was among a group of coeds boarding a June flight to Hawaii for a summer of schooling at Hawaii university and afternoons on the beach at Waikiki. They were members of the annual J. D. Howard tour. Pictured with Mary is Janet Malloy of Detroit.

TROY TOWNSHIP—Demonstration day for all Oakland county 4-H members will be held July 8, at the Social Welfare building, 1260 West boulevard, Pontiac, starting at 9 a. m.

Troy 4-H club members should have a snappy demonstration ready by that date. Among some of the possibilities for agricultural demonstrations are, soil and water conservation, livestock loss prevention, tractor, Michigan Sheep Breeders Assn. special, dairy, poultry, crops, general livestock, electrical, and vegetable and flower gardening.

In the home field there are such possibilities as bread making, baking, home improvement, health and safety, family living, food preservation, school lunch, and dishwashing with detergents. Miss Jean Hardy of the Detroit Edison company will judge the home field demonstrations.

Only county winners will be eligible to go to Michigan State College during the Michigan 4-H show. Participants are asked to be on time so the demonstration may begin promptly at 9 o'clock.

Any Troy 4-H youths wanting more information may call Mrs. Howard Sanders, Alpine road, Troy township.

Troy Union school was the place to be Sunday, June 27, if you liked strawberry shortcake and ice cream. The PTA sponsored the social and in spite of the weather, met with fair success. The committee that worked on the social agreed that they should like to try the project again another year, feeling that, had the weather been more in their favor they would have gone over the top.

Mrs. Brandt Clifton, 561 Parkland, was hostess to St. Mary's guild of the Guardian Angel church on June 30.

Mrs. Jack Hutchins, 785 Eckford road, announces that her Brownie Troop which formerly met in her home, will meet in the Colerain school when the group resumes under her leadership in September.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Paul Ward, new pastor of the Troy Methodist church and his wife, were honored last week with a pound party and reception. Each member of the church brought an article of canned food or food staples in the amount of one pound, and presented their gifts to the Harvey attended Big Beaver high school and was employed at Briggs Manufacturing company before he enlisted.

The Progressive Youth 4-H group under the leadership of Mrs. Howard Sanders, has returned from 4-H camp at Island Lake, Brighton, Mich. Those attending were Joan Marawsky, Lyle Blank, Gloria Sanders, Norman Huff, Margaret Roe, Bob Brown and Beverly Sanders.

Each day at camp, this group won daily awards for neatness of their cabins. The girls of this group also won the stunt award. Mrs. Walter Huff and Mrs. Floyd Roe drove the group to camp and Mrs. Howard Sanders brought them home.

Larry Eisenchenk has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Eisenchenk, 450 Livernois, to tell them he has been promoted from Private First Class to Corporal.

Eisenchenk has served in Korea for the past six months and is now attending radar school in Japan. He left for overseas duty last December from Fort Lewis, Wash.

Troy Newlyweds Live in Royal Oak

Mr. and Mrs. William Scott McGuigan are living at 322 South Laurel, Royal Oak, after their marriage in Pontiac before Judge Maurice Finnegan.

The couple were attended by the bridegroom's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James McGuigan.

The bride is the former Eve Louise Riemick, daughter of Mrs. Steve Bakos, 1855 Kirton and Fred Riemick of Troy township. The groom is the son of Mrs. Robert Hamilton of Hazel Park and Arthur McGuigan, of Oakland, Calif.

Eve wore a dusty rose dress with a beaded scoop neckline, a white picture hat, shoes and bag and a white corsage completed her costume.

The new Mrs. McGuigan is a 1946 graduate of Log Cabin school. William served with the Army in Europe during World War II. He is employed at the Central Cut Stone company, Detroit.
