

NEWLY ORGANIZED Peace American Lutheran church, 13 Mile road, recently held its first election of church officers. Among those who still serve for the year are standing (l to r) Paul Dipman, church president, and the Rev. Paul Wietzek (seated) Mrs. James Morrison, Sunday school superintendent, and Miss Phyllis Frei, parish worker. Currently using the parish house for some church activities, the group is planning the erection of a church in the near future.

Special Schedules Of Regular Service At Cranbrook Church

The family worship service at 9:30 a.m. in Christ Church Cranbrook will continue throughout the summer months.

Church school schedules for this hour has members of grades four through 10 remaining in the church with their parents for the regular service.

The first, second and third grades will attend the first part of the service and then go to room 206 for their own service.

Children three, four and five years of age, will meet at room 204, to be called for at the close of the adult worship. Pre-three nursery tots will meet in room 203 rather than Cranbrook House. Parents are asked to take them there by 9:20 and call for them at the close of the church service.

Summer Schedule

Sunday morning services at the First Methodist church went on summer schedule July 4, with but one preaching service. Operating until fall, this will be at 11 a.m. However, church school will continue to operate on the usual schedule, 9:30 to 11 a.m.

St. Andrew's Elects

Young men of Christ Church Cranbrook elected to serve as officers of St. Andrew's guild are Bill Nechman, president; Bill Raich, vice president; John Newcomb, secretary. They succeed former officers Thor Halverson, Dick Thalacher and Bob Davison.

Early copy for church activities makes it better for us and better for you. Don't wait until the deadline, please.

SUNDAY SERMON TOPICS

SUNDAY, JULY 11
Kirk in the Hills

The Rev. G. Merrill Lenox, D.D., will occupy the pulpit at the Kirk for the regular Sunday service.

First Baptist

With the observance of communion highlighting the services, the Rev. Emil Kontz has chosen for his sermon topic, "Bound to Belong."

Franklin Community

"Suppose God Took A Vacation from You?" has been selected by the Rev. Robert Searles for the regular Sunday morning service.

First Presbyterian

Taking Genesis 28:16, "And the Lord said, if I find in Sodom five righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes," as his text, the Rev. Robert Graham will preach on "Landmarks on the Way to God." During the summer months only one service at 9:45 a.m. is held.

United Brethren

A guest speaker will occupy the pulpit at the 11 a.m. service. Dr. R. W. Rash, general secretary of the department of Christian education for the United Brethren church, with offices in Huntington, Ind., will speak.

At the 7:45 p.m. service, the pastor, the Rev. Willis E. Bishop, will preach.

Unity Center

In the absence of Frank Glabach, regular speaker, Daphne Greer will speak, her topic being "The Great Affirmative." Services are held in the Center's reading room, Birmingham theater building.

Christian Science

That true progress depends on effective prayer, and man's selfless desire to understand and apply spiritual truths concerning God and man, will be brought out in the sermon on "Sacrament."

Congregational

"A Good Hand Upon Us," has been selected by the Rev. Robert S. Dewey for his 10 a.m. sermon. His text is from Nehemiah 2:8. The service will be followed by an informal coffee hour to mark the reception of new members into the group.

BUSY WITH crayons, scissors and paste, the little fellows of Embury Methodist's vacation Bible school are interested in people. Their project for the term was a picture of the church from the outside, with cutouts of the men and women, boys and girls, who attend it. Youngsters in this, and several other schools ended their activities Friday after a two-week course of study. (Eccentric Photo)

New Group Meets Every Wednesday To Study Religion

The formation of a new religious discussion group in Birmingham was announced this week by Joseph Zabelsky, 344 West Brown, at by a thorough understanding of all religions and all humanity.

"We would like to see peace for the entire world," he said, "and feel this can only be accomplished by a thorough understanding of all religions and all humanity."

THE BAHAI' world faith group originated in Persia early in the 19th century and spread throughout Europe, Canada and the United States. Theme of the original group was "equality, fraternity and the unity of all religions."

"We will investigate and study every religious teaching or phase of it our members want," Zabelsky stated.

Men Planning Picnic

A July 15 picnic is on tap for the Men's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Birmingham. The group will meet at the William Arland home, 2727 Square Lake road at 5:30 p.m. Games and a picnic supper will start the evening which will end with a business session and election of officers.

Introducing the new 1954 James

The dishwasher that removes even dried egg yolks:

JAMES
MOBILE AUTOMATIC DISHWASHER

No hand pre-rinsing
No installation with the JAMES

No hard-water "spots" after drying. James has built-in water softener.

Use less hot water only 4 1/2 gallons.

Powerful ever-moving solid sheets of water clean even pots, pans.

2-min. radiant heat drying from built-in unit. (Sterile-Dry process)

Micro-filter prevents food particles from recirculating.

Let JAMES Do It! Exclusive powerful action removes even dried egg yolk without hand pre-rinsing! Mobile unit needs no installation. No plumbing. No wiring or cabinet work. Just roll James to sink, attach hose—let James do the dishes.

James lets you say goodbye to even these toughest "wash-by-hand" jobs:

Removes left-over grease! Pots, pans get close-up "scrubbing" in torrents of 180° water—come out glistening!

Removes lipstick—dries without streaks! Finest glassware is safely washed, rinsed in softened water.

James Deluxe, only $199.95
James Premier (as described) $269.50
