

Berkshire Residents Home from Connecticut

By BARBARA DROEGE Staff Correspondent MI 6-0431

BERKSHIRES—Connecticut was the vacation spot chosen by the Joseph Rytels of Chula Vista lane. The Rytels and daughters, Betty and Mary, returned June 28th from 3 weeks in the East. They visited Mr. Rytel's sister, Mrs. Pat Franco, in Hartland and then went to the Franco summer home at Old Lyme, Connecticut, on Long Island Sound, where they swam every day in the ocean. While enjoying their vacation by the seaside, the Rytels celebrated their thirty-first wedding anniversary, June 27th.

Mrs. Jack Berno and the four Berno children recently returned from a long weekend jaunt to Mansfield, Ohio. There was cause for celebration that weekend. Besides seeing his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Smith, Jeff had a birthday—his 14th—and there to help him celebrate was his great-grandmother, Mrs. Joy, 86 years old, from Council Grove, Kan. Mrs. Berno's sister and husband from Akron, joined the party for the weekend and coaxed Jane Berno to return to Akron with them to spend a week. It didn't take much coaxing either, says Mrs. Berno.

Mrs. John R. Burnell is serving as a co-leader of Unit 12 at a Girl Scout day camp in Troy, Mich., for two weeks. There are 16 units in all who are enjoying cook-outs, games, hikes and craft work Tuesday through Friday from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m., ending July 9th. Son Hyron has been joining his mother each day since there is a baby-sitting unit right there!

Mrs. Paul C. Jackson of E. Green which drive has been entertaining her niece and nephew from Pontiac in shifts this past week. John Paul Williams II, a fine first and spent two days and upon his departure, Nancy Sue, 7, and Dianna Lee, 5, took over. The children and their mother agree that aunts are so-so-so nice!

The H. Dawsons, daughters, Dione and Karren, and son Donnie, drove to Indiana last week. Their destination was Culver military school where Donnie, 12, is enrolled for 8 weeks of summer camp.

Off for 10 days of fishing is Buck Sullivan, 218 Hampton road. One of a party of five, including Mr. Walter Anderson and his grandson, Tommy Walton, Mr. A. Zimmerman and Bill Price who are staying at Honey Harbor in the Georgian Bay region, Mr. Sullivan should be having some great fun with some of these granddaddy p.

The Neville Abbotts of 7048 Sherwood drive welcomed Mr. Abbott's brother, Russell, and his wife from Lakewood, Ohio over the holiday weekend. At the end of their visit the Russell Abbotts are taking their niece, Jean, back to Lakewood, via airplane, where she will be their guest for a few days and then go on to Mentor, Ohio to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meggers for three weeks.

The George L. Wrights are at present entertaining Mrs. Wright's sister and nephew, Mrs. Nell Baker and son Wade, 11, here for a three-week visit from Greenville, Miss.

The Leo L. Loft house is pretty quiet since their grandchildren left. Grandma and granddaddy entertained Linda, Mike and Leola, and their mother, Mrs. Harry A. Thomson, from Park Forest, Ill., for two weeks before their daddy came to claim them over the holiday weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly and family of Lincoln road drove to Akron, Ohio, the weekend of June 28th, to attend the wedding of Mrs. Kelly's nephew, Kenneth Karg and his bride, Mary Lou Strickland. The wedding took place at St. Sebastian's church in Akron and a wedding breakfast and an evening reception were held at the Mayflower hotel.

To make the weekend complete for the Kelly children, Mrs. Kelly's sister, Mrs. Mary Wade, invited them to her cottage on Turkey Foot lake where they swam, picnicked and boated to their heart's content!

TRESSA WAY MERRILL

Plays Leading Role In 'Curious Savage'

An elderly eccentric of great wealth will be played by Tressa Way Merrill when she stars in "The Curious Savage" opening at Wil-O-Way Playhouse July 6 for a two week run. The Playhouse is open every evening except Monday.

The sentimental comedy, written by John Patrick, will be under the direction of William W. Merrill, founder of the Playhouse and son of the current play's star.

The comedy centers around the wealthy woman who wants to use her money to help a few selected persons realize their fondest hopes. Relatives, having their own designs on her money, manage to have her whisked away to an institution and although a mild wing is her destination, odd characters are in store.

HERE SHE finds herself associated with a woman who hates everyone, the tuneless fiddler, the woman who hugs an illusion she believes is her son, the war-shattered musician, and the extremely plain girl who believes herself beautiful and beloved.

After finally winning her fight for freedom, the woman finds herself loathe to leave these new-found friends.

Sharing top casting with Mrs. Merrill are George C. Scott, Bettie Toti, Robert Bryson, Gail Engel, Freddie Morris, Lawrence Bosley, Kemal Kasem, Frances Hamburger, Mary Anne Wilson and Margaret Kauch.

Couple to Reside at Boulder After Michigan Honeymoon

A candlelight ceremony at the First Methodist church June 26 united in marriage Ruth Jean Smith and Elmer Eldon Olson. The Rev. Harry Martin read the rites before approximately 100 guests.

Ruth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Smith of 749 North Elton road. Elmer's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Olson of Boulder, Colo.

The bride chose a gown of white imported swiss embroidery over pale blue taffeta with a skirt fashioned of five tiers of material. Her short veil of net was fastened to a cap of embroidery over blue taffeta and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis with blue delphinium.

MRS. RICHARD Brinkman of Dearborn was matron of honor, with Janice Mellinger of Ionia and Anne Marie Quilman of Lakewood, Ohio, as bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in gowns of pale blue imported swiss organza over taffeta, ballerina length. The necklines and short sleeves were edged with white embroidery and they carried white carnations and delphinium. Their hairdresses were ivory and delphinium.

Karen Lee Bambo of Waldwick, N. J., was her cousin's flower girl. Her frock was of blue organza fashioned like the other attendants and she carried a basket of carnations and delphinium.

Ray Olson, father of the groom, was best man. Ushering were Richard Brinkman of Dearborn and George Gallop of Jackson.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding, Mrs. Smith wore a navy silk organza dress with lace bands over peach colored net. Her corsage was of talisman roses. Mrs. Olson chose navy lace with yellow roses.

Following a reception in the church parlor, the couple began a tour of northern Michigan before going to Boulder, where they will make their home. For traveling the new Mrs. Olson donned a light blue and white linen suit with matching hat.

Out-of-town guests were from New York City, Boulder, Lakewood, Ohio, Detroit, Ionia and Waldwick, N. J.
