WING LAKE, FOXCROFT—Still living up to their series of unexpected happenings, Carey laners are laughing about the latest comic events in their area in which the E. Nurmes and John Roberts were, once again, innocent participants. This time, it was an impromptu rodeo!

While sipping cocktails with guests, Mr. and Mrs. Nurmes, in the quiet of their garden, June 20, Jill Roberts reports that two frisky horses appeared. Neighing at her in defiance, they kicked up their heels to gallop about the lawn.

As she was blinking her eyes to "chase away the vision," who rode in upon the scene but lone ranger, James Grisson. Astride his golden palomino and exhibiting considerable cowboy skill, he pursued the truant up and down Carey lane until finally, with heads and tails drooping, the horses were driven back to their corral. Peace reigns once more on Carey lane—but, as everyone is wondering—for how long?

Happy over the reunion with their daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swain and children, 12-year-old Glenn and 8-year-old twins, Chucky and Margaret Ann, the Glenn Swigarts of Chipewa court have been busy catching up on guests. Arriving from Evansville, Indiana, June 18, Swain left the following Sunday. His family will remain until the middle of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nicholson of Carey lane gave a small bridge party on the evening of June 25. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward William Safford, Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Coraelius Van Halteren, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tweitmeier and Mr. and Mrs. John Fingear of Foxcroft.

With three weeks' attendance at Cranbrook's six week summer day camp already behind him, 9-year-old Bill Springer of Franklin lane is wishing that his arts and crafts, junior scientists and swimming classes could continue right on into Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Willis of Worlington road entertained house guests, Mrs. Willis's sister and her husband, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Beachley from Seaford, Ontario, over the Fourth.

On Saturday evening, they attended Will-O-Way theatre on West Long Lake to see "Affairs of State."

Joining them for a barbecue dinner last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sehn of Detroit who played in the golf tournament at Oakland Hills Country Club earlier that day.

From June 28 to July 2, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wegren of Ottawa lane entertained houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mathey and children, Jimmy and Carolyn, from Alhambra, Calif.

Celebrating the fourth at a cocktail party and buffet supper followed by fireworks at the Forest Lake Country club were Mr. and Mrs. Alden Willis and son, Allen. Mrs. Frederick Gould of Monterey court is back from San Francisco, Calif., where she was the houseguest of Mrs. George Hansen, a former classmate of hers at the University of Michigan.

Looking forward to three weeks of sailing, water skiing, swimming and motor boating at Dewey lake, near Dowagiac, Mich., the Randall Crabbs left July 2 for their fifteenth annual visit to the summer cottage of old friend Mr. and Mrs. Craig Wilson.

Randall Crabbs' father, Mr. Arthur Crabbs, left at the same time to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Boer in Tenally, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walters, Orion Circle, entertained a former Ferndale schoolmate and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bach of Daly City, Calif.

The James Bennetts of Crabtree lane enjoyed swimming and boating with members of their Supper club at the Long Lake home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beno on July 1. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelso and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sutherland from Franklin.

Attending a dance at the Malta Lake Conservation club, June 28, were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dehandt and Mr. and Mrs. George Koehn of Wing Lake Farms, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Horste, Franklin Village, and Mr. and Mrs. Gil Gapp of Southfield.

After the dance, the couples gathered at the Indianwood, Trail home of the Sullivan's for a late "coffee and cake."

At their barbecue dinner, July 1, the Robert Dunlaps of Sheringham lane served fried chicken and all the trimmings to guests, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Crabbs and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sickles entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Priest and son, Donald, at their Cherokee road home, June 27.

On June 24, the Ellsworth Kraemer and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Toiland and son, Fred, from San Marino, Calif., and Mr. George H. Hopper of Detroit, enjoyed a steak "cook-out" at the Kraemer's east Surrey home.

A few days later, on June 27, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kramer and children of Detroit, came to share in Ellsworth Kramer's birthday festivities.

Plans for a gay weekend over the fourth by the Van Halteren and Tweitmeier families were cancelled when their children, 7-year-old Gretchen Tweitmeier and 8-year-old Janie Van Halteren came down with the mumps.

The Thomas Stacey's and children, Tom, Jr., and Barbara, hosted a family reunion over the fourth. Their houseguests were Mrs. Stacey's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prucha, and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Robinson and chil-

Lace, Taffeta Worn By Mary Anne Kraft

Mary Anne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Kraft of 644 Oakland avenue and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Powell of Concordia, Kan.

The bride's gown was of white chantilly lace and taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a full flaring skirt, marked by four panels of lace. The same lace formed her halo headpiece, and she carried white carnations and stephanotis accented with ivy.

MARtha KRAFT was her sister's only attendant. Her floor length gown was of soft green tulle over taffeta and her headpiece of the same color. She carried pink carnations.

James G. Burgess of Midland, Texas, was best man, and ushers

June 25 to 27, the Dick Carters of Crabtree road entertained house guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Palmer, of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stanford and son, Jimmy, from Toledo, Ohio.

The three men played in a golf tournament between the Stanley Carters of Detroit and the Robert Carter co. of Toledo, Ohio, at the Hawthorne Valley club, June 26. The Robert Carter co. won.

Proving that they are good losers, the Dick Carters gave a late buffet dinner that same evening, followed by a game of shuffleboard for their houseguests and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Winters, Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. George Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sandusky of Cleveland, Ohio.
