Dad would appreciate a watch from Lake Jewelers!

We say "above all" because... the model Dad is an individual of as many mannerisms, characteristics and appearances as there are Dads in the world. However, one trait that all Dads seem to have in common is a dependence on the services of a good watch. Unfortunately, today's pace requires that he be at some spot, at some time so many times of the day. So, he looks at his watch over and over again. He expects accuracy, trouble free service and smart appearance in his watch. As bread winner, husband, father, buddy he has to allocate his time carefully so all will get the proper share of his attention. That is why he would appreciate one of these superb formal or informal, self-winding and/or shockproof watches by these world famous manufacturers.
