

Silk Shantung Chosen For Lutheran Nuptials

A white silk shantung gown was worn by Barbara A. Johnson for her marriage to Bruce E. Boeker. Fashioned with an empire waistline and butterfly bustle, seed pearls and sequins adorned the V-neckline. The full length skirt fell into a short train. She carried a cascade of gardenias.

The nuptial rites were read at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, at Epiphany Lutheran church. The Rev. E. T. Bernthal, uncle of the groom, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before 200 wedding guests.

The new bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Johnson of Goldengate drive, Latrup Village. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Victor W. Boeker of Darien, Conn.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harold Simpson of Flint announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Elizabeth, to Gordon Thurston Harrows. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon T. Burrows, 615 Westchester Way.

The bride-elect was graduated from Michigan State college where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma. In Flint she is a member of Lambda Phi and the Junior League. Her fiance studied at the University of Michigan and was graduated from Tri-State college, Angola, Ind.

Plans are being made for a September wedding.

Sisters on Trip

Charlotte and Sally Smith, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Smith of North Woodward avenue, left Tuesday morning, driving west through North Dakota and Yellowstone National Park. Charlotte will fly home after two weeks, while Sally will go on to Flathead Lake, Mont. She will attend an eight-week summer session at the biological station of the University of Montana, working on her masters degree in biology.

HONOR ATTENDANT was Helen Merrida of Ann Arbor, sorority sister of the bride. She wore a lilac tulle dress with full length gown. The fitted bodice was styled with a boat neckline and short sleeves. The straight skirt was fashioned with a panel forming a train. She wore a small white veiled hat adorned with rhinestones and carried raspberry and white flowers.

Bridesmaids were Bernice Sawicki, Joyce Feltes and Elaine Richawski, all of Ann Arbor and Lois Franklin of Grosse Pointe, were bridesmaids.

They wore raspberry colored gowns identical to the maid of honor's and smaller white rhinestone hats. They carried bouquets of lilac and white garden flowers. Bernice was also soloist.

Ralph Boeker was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Helen S. Lyndall, Paul Boeker, brother of the groom of Darien, Gagnon Coates of Plymouth and Sherwood Deaton of Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Boeker attended the wedding and reception, following at Birmingham Country club, wearing an aqua lace street length dress with pink accessories. She had a cascade of roses.

To start her trip, the new Mrs. Boeker donned a pink shantung suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Touring the midwest, they will make their home in Claymont, Del.

MRS. BRUCE E. BOEKER

Alumnae to Honor College President
