

THE MIRACLE

Where once the earth seemed cold and still
Life has come back and now the thrill
Of those great loving hearts beat bring,
The same sweet miracle of spring.

The beauty of the clear blue sky
And consciousness of new life high,
The mating call of bird on wing,
Proclaim the miracle of spring.

The bursting bud on yonder tree
Awakening butterfly and bee,
Croaking frogs and birds that sing,
All greet the miracle of spring.

BERKSHIRES—Members of the Girls Athletic Association at Birmingham high school held their annual picnic at the home of Jean Sullivan, 21890 Hampton road, Thursday, June 10. New officers were announced at this meeting and spring awards were passed out.

Officers for the coming term are: Sally Sharpe, president; Ruth Hibbard, vice president; Ann Seymour, treasurer; Mahol Harkness, secretary; Dorothy Roseman, historian; and Claire DeNador, public relations.

The retiring officers feted the new officers at a progressive dinner on Wednesday, June 16.

Jimmy White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles White of Greenough drive, celebrated two happy occasions in one outing recently. The family opened up the summer cottage at Federich, Ont., and topped that off with a birthday party to celebrate Jimmy's eighth birthday. Jimmy's grandmother, Mrs. Andrew Quaid, his brothers, Andy and Chad, joined his mother and dad to sing a "very happy birthday."

It's anchors again for Mr. and Mrs. George L. Wright, 20700 Kenowa circle, and the Ralph Forshoes of Flint, who will leave this week on a cruise to Miami, Fla. Mrs. Wright has her fingers crossed since last year at this very same time. "Dad had one!"

Welcome to the Holidays, former residents of East Detroit, who now reside at 6310 Red Maple lane. The Holidays have an interesting background, having spent 15 years in England when their father was
