EAST BEVERLY—Enthusiastically packing and making plans for her forthcoming vacation trip is Mrs. Don Borgeson of Birwood. Mrs. Borgeson will be leaving June 23 on the first lap of her trip to Victoria, British Columbia, where she will attend the Alpha Phi international convention, representing her alumnae chapter as president. Mrs. Borgeson will leave on a special train from Chicago with her traveling companion, Mrs. R. C. Awrey of Detroit. Return date is set for July 3 when she will be flying back from Seattle. Plans are scheduled for side stops at Banff, Lake Louise, Vancouver, and Minneapolis.

Birthdays parties seem to be keeping mothers and their youngsters busy in the month of June. Tuesday, June 8, Cathy Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hughes of Buckingham celebrated her fifth birthday by inviting a group of her friends for cake, ice cream and games. Cathy's guests included Christine Mellinger, Nancy Yardley, Fanny Martin, Barbara Post, Carol and Susie Leonard, Philip Ebersole, Andrea and Barbara Hall, Robin Dewar and Cathy's sister, Jane.

Another birthday celebration was that of Lee Spiegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Spiegel of Kirkshire, who turned four on Thursday, June 10. Lee invited a number of his friends to a party and his guests included Craig Moody, Anne Gieck, Susan Brown, Nancy Brown, Jimmy Sharkey, John J. Hughes of Milwaukee, Wis., who plan to spend two weeks with their family here.

Recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Mills of Kirkshire were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Griffin of Lindsay, Ont.

There is a new arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Triplett of Buckingham. They announce the birth of a son, Roger Murray, on June 3. The Triplett's have another son, Layne, 8, and a daughter, Linda, 5. Visiting Mrs. Triplett now is her mother, Mrs. C. R. Layne of Wichita, Kan., who will be here for three weeks.

WALNUT LAKE—New fourth grade teacher for Walnut Lake school, Virginia Pecca, was present at a luncheon, June 16, at Devon Gables, where the teaching staff got together before scattering for the summer.

Table talk revolved around vacation plans. Nola Peasley and Maxine James disclosed that they will be working for their masters degree at the University of Michigan, while Marianne Zimbrun will take summer courses at the University of Detroit.

Mrs. Ann Triff first must get the big job of moving to a new location over with, after which she hopes to relax on a trip to the Smokies. Mrs. Olive Wanhren hopes to spend some time quietly at home, and will visit her home town in the upper peninsula during its centennial celebration, after which she will spend two weeks at Lonia lake near Hale, Mich.

The plans of Mrs. Eva Johnson are still indefinite. Marjorie Votey will spend the month of July at her new home on East Bay, near Traverse city, and will be back in her office in August. Mrs. Imogene Borglum is sailing on June 18 with her husband, Professor G. P. Borglum of Wayne university, for Europe, where they are being sent by Ford Foundation and Wayne university to make educational movies. Mrs. Borglum will be back by the middle of September to resume teaching at Walnut Lake.

Girl Scout Troop 360 entertained the Walnut Lake branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association recently, giving a puppet show regarding fire prevention and careless camping.

Girls taking part were Margaret Roberts, Mary Ellen Davis, Sharon Gibson, Karen Madden, Rosalyn Latham, Kay Graber, Laura Scympe and June Ofenstein. The girls made their own puppet, stage and scenery, and wrote the script.

At a special meeting, Mrs. Paul Dahl gave the Troop pointers on
