WING LAKE-FOXCROFT—Mrs. Gladys Krause and her Vaughan school kindergarten class were driven to the Detroit Zoological Park, May 9, by a corps of mothers, Mrs. Henry Browner, Mrs. Francis Gadd, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Edmund Kleinschmidt and Mrs. J. Hertzler.

Entering the grounds on the Zoo's miniature train, the children visited the lions, tigers, bears and were particularly delighted with the mother baboon who kept matching her baby back to her whenever he would venture away. They also attended the chimpanzee show.

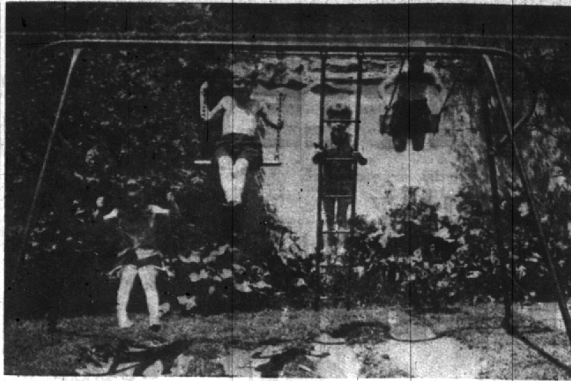

Fully anticipating an afternoon of "tiny tin bedlam," Mrs. Browner and Mrs. Gadd reported that, on the contrary, every child wore a "halo" and behaved in like fashion.

Among the children from this area were Johnny Irvine, Jeff Workman, Hannah Blakeman, Wally Stecker, Sandy Smith, David Dum, Margy Browner, Lamont Richter, Timmy Hertzler, David Bebe, Sandy Fraser, Susan and Skipper Gadd, Jeannie Van Halteren, Toby Nicholson and Buddy Kleinschmidt.

Three oil paintings and two sketches by Mrs. Alberta Counts Wing Lake road, were among those exhibited by the Society of Arts and Crafts at their 28th exhibition of student work at the art gallery, 47 Watson street, Detroit.

Starr Commonwealth benefit dessert-bridge will be held at 1 p.m., June 25, at the home of Mrs. Frederick Keller, 6000 Wing Lake road. Proceeds will be turned over to Starr Commonwealth's boys' home near Albion.

Farm and Garden Club for this season was held at the home of Mrs. James Bennett of Crabtree lane, June 7.

After the general meeting, Delbert Adams of Adams greenhouse, Birmingham road, spoke on "floral arrangements for the home."

Using California daisies, snapdragons, Gladiolus, various greens, he created a number of floral arrangements which were won later by lucky members in a drawing.

Mrs. Bennett served punch, tea cakes and cookies outdoors in her garden, bringing to a close another year for the Foxcroft Farm and Garden Club.

The William Leickens, Wing Lake road, are busy accepting congratulations on the birth of their first child, Jill Ann made her debut weighing 7 pounds, 3 ounces at the St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac, on June 3.

Recently shipped from Texas where he held the responsible position of race track lead pony, Fal, the beautiful, golden palomino with the white mane and tail, is a delight to on-lookers in this area as he trots along the roads ridden by his master, James Grissom of Carey lane. Occasionally, two year-old Mary accompanies her daddy but her brother, Mike, is still too young for such an adventure.

In the interests of the community, the Wing Lake Property association and the Wing Lake Shores Farm and Garden club request that those persons, who have been using the property surrounding the Wing Lake water pumps on Worlington and the park area on Wing Lake road as dumping grounds for their trash, refrain from doing so in the future.

It is discouraging to community volunteers who have labored so diligently to keep the grounds neat and presentable to find the results of their labor obliterated overnight.

A busy week for Mrs. Harvey Sanderson, monologist, beginning with June 8 when she performed for the Child Study club at the Meadow Brook Golf club. On the following day in Mt. Clemens, she entertained wives of members of the Michigan Osteopathy association.

June 10 she obliged her husband, program chairman, and recently elected vice president of Southern Oakland county chapter of the Optimist club, with a performance of three monologues at their annual banquet and dance.

Mrs. Ted Stoll, social chairman of the Foxcroft Association, reports a big turnout at the basket picnic held for Foxcroft residents, June 13.

Mrs. Alex Mair of Thurber road will be glad to accept applications from residents desiring membership in the Wing Lake Shores Farm and Garden Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham; children, Nancy, Patricia and Charles, and their grandmother, Mrs. Hazel Woodring, made a recent visit to the Detroit Zoological Park in Royal Oak.

The children were especially intrigued with the polar bears, elephant and with Oscar, the red-necked baby ostrich. Born last September, he is the only ostrich ever to be raised in a northern zoo. Oscar is now six and a half feet and still growing!

They closed their day with at-

Kappa Alpha Thetas Have Joint Meeting
Afternoon and evening groups of Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae will have a joint potluck luncheon at 12:45 p.m., June 17, at the home of Mrs. Raymond Bower on East Long Lake road. Evening group will install its officers for the coming year, including Mrs. Russell Gilbin, president; Mrs. William C. Orniston, vice president; Mrs. Robert Baxter, secretary; Mrs. Joseph Funston, treasurer; Mrs. William Everett, ways and means; Mrs. Richard Miner, social; Mrs. George Souter, Public Relations; Mrs. Robert DeNuy, rushing and newcomers.

Reporting on the annual weekend cruise to Mackinac island by Redford high school's graduating class, Carol Flak of Sheringham lane, states that, although the SS North American could not stop at the island as planned due to rough weather, this did not dampen teenage enthusiasm concerning the festivities on board.

Wing Lakers crowded into the Franklin community house, June 8, to attend the annual meeting of the Wing Lake Property Owners' Association, Incorporated.
