Ascension Lutheran Maps Family Picnic

Ascension Lutheran church families are whipping final plans into shape for an all-church basket picnic on June 20 at the Ulica unit of the Rochester-Utica recreation area. The park is new, located on 22 Mile road, west of Van Dyke.

In announcing plans, the Rev. Paul Shippert said that, since the affair would be held after the regular morning worship, "picnic clothes" would be in order for the church service.

In the event of rain, the affair will be postponed until the following week.

Christ Church Unit Names New Officers

The Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook held its annual meeting June 8, when Mrs. William E. Hoge was named president for the 1954-55 year.

Other elected officers are Mrs. Roland Diemer and Mrs. Harry C. Dunville, vice presidents; Mrs. Paul Bell, treasurer; Mrs. Luther B. Leeder, recording secretary; Mrs. William Warner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Kenneth R. Gibson, United Thank Offering chairman.

Mrs. Paul Wilson, retiring president, was automatically named to head the advisory committee.

Presbyterians Open Bible School Monday

Vacation church school will be held at the First Presbyterian church, 1650 West Maple, June 21 through July 2.

Classes will be for children ages 4-12, five days a week from 9 a. m. until noon.

Kindergarten children will be led by Mrs. Scott Purvis, 1447 Henrietta. Mrs. V. A. McIntosh, 32950 Colony Hill, Franklin, will lead primary grades 1, 2 and 3. Mrs. Charles Bigelow, 31256 Pierce, will be in charge of the junior department.

Westminster vacation church school material will be used. Pre-registration is required.

Congregationalists Announce Organist

The Congregational Church of Birmingham announces the appointment of A. Shanley Rosso, organist and choir director.

Rosso has held similar positions by area churches during the past 31 years, including the First Congregational Church of Detroit. He has just completed more than four years in this office at Kirk in the Hills church, Bloomfield Hills.

He will assume his duties with the Congregational church of the first week in July.

Note Anniversaries

June 20 will be "anniversary day" at Redeemer Lutheran church when a combination of anniversaries is celebrated. The current program will include the second anniversary of the youth building, 12th anniversary of the church building and the 29th anniversary of the formation of the church congregation.

Church at Franklin Plans Bible School

Plans are being completed this week for the vacation school classes at Franklin Community church, due to get under way the last week in June.

Mrs. Arthur Hays and Mrs. Don Tracy are handling enrollment.

Registration Opens For August Courses

Mrs. Richard Fowler is taking reservations for those members of St. James church who plan to attend any of the five day sessions at Parishfield's Bible study and group Christian living course in August.

Five courses will be set up on the basic theme, "The Church and the World." The church office staff will also accept any local parish reservation.

Detroit to Lead U-B Church School

A representative of the Junior Bible school of Detroit, Miss Gertrude Werkingtin, will be in charge of the vacation school for United Brethren in Christ church, 14 Mile and Edgewood.

The two-week program will start June 21, closing on July 2, 9:30 to 11:30 a. m.

Volunteer helpers are being recruited from among the women in the congregation.

Embury Vacation School Announces '54 Study Topic

Selecting "The Church" as its subject, the vacation church school of Embury Methodist will get underway on June 21, continuing through July 1. Sessions will be held Monday through Friday from 9:30 to 11:30 a. m.

The directing committee is Mrs. Reginald Becker, wife of the pastor, Mrs. Richard Sauerbrun and Mrs. Fred Aldred. A staff of teachers is being selected.

Children from 4 years through those who are finishing the sixth grade this year are eligible for enrollment.

Mrs. Becker said that, working with the Christian Rural Overseas program, the project this year would be to provide money for food to be distributed to children in Korea.

The closing session will be a cooperative luncheon and brief program by children who have attended the two-week school, and their parents.
