

Louise Raisch Wed To Medical Student

Carl David Brunsting claimed Louise Raisch as his bride in a Monday afternoon ceremony attended only by members of the immediate families.

The Rev. Robert DeWitt read the rites at 4:30 p.m. in Christ Church Cranbrook. A reception followed in the North Adams road home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raisch.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of White French tulle over silk taffeta, styled with a portrait neckline applied with alencon lace. The tight bodice was accented by applied alencon lace and mother of pearl floral design extending into a bouffant skirt outlining front panels. Her tiered silk illusion veil was secured to a Juliet cap of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of Alstroemeria lilies of the valley and ivy.

HER ONLY attendant was Mary Barto of Bloomfield Hills. She wore a waitz length gown of azure blue chiffon with a square neckline, tucked bodice and a pleated skirt with cummerbund of azure blue chiffon. Her headpiece was a wreath of ivy secured with a cluster of garnet roses and she carried rubrum lilies, garnet roses and ivy.

Dr. Louis A. Brunsting, Jr., was his brother's best man, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Brunsting of Rochester, Minn. Mrs. Rabeil attended the wedding and reception, wearing a powder blue crepe dress with matching hat. Mrs. Brunsting chose a wool crepe ensemble with a pink and brown hat. Both mothers had cybindium orchids.

FOLLOWING their wedding trip to Northern Michigan the couple will reside in Ann Arbor for the summer. After Sept. 1st they will live in Boston where the bridegroom will continue his studies at Harvard Medical school.

Out of town guests include Dr. and Mrs. Franklin Earnest III, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Brunsting, all of Toledo, O., Mr. and Mrs. Berle Ariz of Muskegon, Isaac, grandfather of the bride from Muskegon, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Pleune, grandparents of the groom from Grand Rapids, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Raisch of Springfield, Ill. and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bradley of Grand Rapids.

S'field Optimists To Hear F. Lawton

The man who can claim responsibility for the University of Michigan song, "Varsity", will be the speaker when the Optimist club of Southfield meets for dinner at Vaughn's restaurant tonight.

Feed Lawton, free lance writer and "sports analyst supreme" will address what will be the final meeting until fall.

Matt Berra, editor of "The Optimystic", the club's weekly bulletin, passed on honors he received for the paper at the recent state convention saying, "honor is for the club. Only an active organization supplies interesting material on which to write."
