Generally speaking, whenever man has gone he has taken from this earth natural wealth, leaving it desolated, subject to the erosive elements of No-matter material matter, matter, matter, despoiler, a predator... that is, most of mankind.

Many Pupils Dance In Lathrup Recital

By BETTY DWORKER - Staff Correspondent
FL 1-3362

LATHRUP—Carol Serenberg presented her students in a dance recital at Lathrup school, Friday, June 4. Over 80 students participated in the program, including many from Lathrup.

Choreography and costumes were designed by Miss Serenberg with Mrs. Edward Hartka and Mrs. R. C. Avery making the costumes. Piano arrangements were written by Florence Pierce.

Studies will be resumed in the fall when Miss Serenberg returns from New York where she will be studying this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Steven Gidley of East California drive returned home this week from Gallinburg, Tenn., where they spent a week vacationing.
