TROY TOWNSHIP—Plans are underway to send 4-H Club members to the 4-H Club Week meetings, held at Michigan State college, June 27. The meetings are planned for members who have reached the age of 14 and will give them an understanding of 4-H Club work.

All leaders in Troy township who have members eligible to attend are asked to send in their names to John K. Bray, 4-H Club agent, 1260 West Boulevard, Pontiac.

Since club week and camp week are held at the same time, a man leader must accompany the members to Lansing.

Camp week for 4-H Clubs will be held at Island Lake, June 27 to July 3. Registrations will be taken on Sunday, June 27 from 3:45-6:30 p.m.

Each member attending camp must provide his own transportation. Questions concerning cost, what to bring, will be answered by John Bray.

"We must have more camp counselors," Bray said. "We would like some fathers to volunteer to stay for one night if they cannot come for the full week. Please call the leader in charge of your child's group if you can serve."

Making plans for camp week were members of Troy Youth Progressive 4-H Club, when they met June 8 at the home of their leader, Mrs. Howard Sanders. They will go the first three days of the camping period.

Members of Mrs. John Schoenhals' 4-H Club held an organizational meeting last Monday, at her home, 561 Creston road. The group has outdoor cooking, sewing and gardening as their projects for the summer.

The following officers were elected: Sharon Vincent, president; Scott Oliver, vice president; Jane Alderman, secretary; treasurer; Janet Schoenhals, recreation chairman; and Bob Coates, health chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith of Muer road had Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cornwall of London, Canada, as their overnight guests. Mrs. Mary Metzger of Mansfield, Ohio, is visiting at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Atkin on Boyd street.

Margaret Howell circle of the Big Beaver Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Paul Swan, 501 E. Big Beaver road, for a potluck lunch and business meeting. Guests were Mrs. J. W. Ellis, Mrs. Sprague, N.C., and Mrs. Julian Pace of Asheville, N.C., mother and sister, respectively, of circle member, Mrs. Roy Duncan.

The public is invited to attend a strawberry festival on Sunday, June 27, from 12 noon until 7 p.m. at Troy Union school, Square Lakeside, east of Rochester road.

The PTA, sponsoring the festival, will serve strawberry short-cakes, strawberry sunnides, popicles and coffee.

Virginia Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, 41 Regent street, Troy township, was honored with a bridal shower, Friday evening, June 1, at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Ruttan. Mrs. Adela Johnson assisted Mrs. Ruttan. Guests included the Sunday school teachers of the Halsey Baptist church where Virginia is the pianist in the primary department of the Sunday school.

Edith Fletcher circle of the Troy Methodist church held their election of officers for the coming year at the home of Mrs. Helen Schoenover, South boulevard. Mrs. Lurline Holloway was elected chairman, Mrs. M. Jagocek, treasurer, and Mrs. Bill Chato, secretary. The circle will be active throughout the summer.

Alvah Carnes, Joseph of Detroit, and Dr. Joseph M. Stalberg, Clawson dentist, addressed members of the Big Beaver PTA at their last meeting. After some discussion, members agreed to use the money remaining in the PTA treasury for school playground equipment.

As entertainment, Girl Scouts, Barbara Wray, Joan Martin, Joyce Kitchener, Marilyn Holman, Carol Hart, Pat Frank and Jeanie Blair, performed a hula-hula dance in appropriate costumes.

Girl Scouts also acted as baby sitters for parents who brought small children to the meeting. Refreshments were prepared by the sixth grade mothers and served by the fathers.

Mrs. Kenneth Henning won the prize for the most original hat at the recent Troy Union school PTA spring party with Mrs. Alex Moberly, winner for the best dressy hat.

Fathers tried their skill at baking and Kenneth Henning was the winner of the prize for the cake with the best flavor and texture.

Victor Millman won the prize for the most decorative cake.

Mrs. Herbert Alden won the games prize and Mrs. Ernest Gray got the prize in the egg hunt game.

Club Scout charter was presented to the PTA by Kenneth Henning. Fathers served refreshments of coffee and home made cake. Extra cakes were sold and $13 was realized from the sale.

Second Lt. Edward A. Belyea graduated from pilot training school at Greenville, Miss., and came home to spend a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Belyea, 221 Florence.

He is last week for Texas and his first assignment as pilot in the U. S. Air Force. Designated as a distinguished graduate, Edward was commended in a letter from Major General C. P. Disoway, USAF.
