FRANKLIN—Sue Roseberry will present her dance students at a recital at the Birmingham Community House, 8 p.m. this Sunday night. Milky, the television program imaged down, will appear during interludes in the dance program.

Sue, 14, has been teaching Franklin youngsters between the ages of 8 and 10 on Saturday mornings for the past two years and has been studying herself for eight years. The public is invited to attend the recital. Tickets may be purchased in advance from Sue or any of her students.

The Franklin branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association, after a business meeting and picnic lunch at 12:30 on Monday, June 21 at the home of Mrs. Gerald Wright, 26396 Normandy road, will make a garden tour.

To be visited are the gardens of Donald Kraus, 30645 N. Greenbrier, Homer Hyde, 32685 Franklin road, George Catlin, 32662 Franklin road, William Jahsan, 25885 German Mill road, Willy Wagner, 26011 German Mill road, Don Hanfer, 26020 Carol road, George W. Smith, 25831 Romany Way, Carlton Rasmussen, 25801 Romany Way, Harry Barr, 25620 Meadowdale, and Bernard Magruder, 32965 Franklin Court.

Now is the time for artists who wish to display their work at the art show at the Franklin Community Hall on June 26, to register. Entry blanks, which must be turned in this Saturday, are available from Mrs. L. J. Roberts, Mrs. Stanley Hild, Mrs. William A. Hyland or Mrs. Ken Nichols. Paintings will be accepted at the community hall on Friday, June 25.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weather-wax celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary today. They have invited their families to join them in cocktails and at dinner on the terrace of their home on Meadow-lake. The Weatherwaxes also celebrate their birthdays tonight, since both of them fall on June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Cud-dohy announce the birth of a daughter, Mary Eileen, on June 2. Spending the summer with the Art Cartys at their home on Wing Lake road is Ed Bender, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Carty's niece.

Art Carty was host at dinner Wednesday night to the athletic directors of 20 Detroit high schools, to honor Vaughn Hanchard who has just retired after being divisional director of health and physical education for the past 25 years.

The David Bartlesons are back in their home on 14-mile road after spending a week in New York. Galtkill Barr was host to members of the Birmingham high school choir and choir director, Victor Ulrich, at the Barr home on Meadowdale lane last Tuesday. His or Mrs. Ken Nichols. Paintings in a neighbor's pool and a picnic on the Barr's spacious lawn.

George P. Callin, 3rd, to be a senior at Cornell this fall, is home with his parents for the summer.

Home for the summer, too, is James Sturdevant, son of the William Sturdevants of Rosemond Drive. A sophomore at Michigan State Normal at Ypsilanti, Jim is enjoying a week of loafing before working for the balance of the summer.

Bradford Barr, a student at the University of Michigan, spent some time with his family before taking off for Indianapolis where he is now working in the jet engine laboratory at the Allison plant.

Jim Carty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Carty, is taking a five week summer school course at the University of Michigan to complete the requirements for a master's degree in business administration. He will then go into the employ of Arthur Anderson, certified public accountant in Detroit.

Linda Cooke celebrated her fifth birthday last Friday, having playmates Judith Hartleson and Justice Caskey in for lunch at the Cooke's 14-Mile road home.

Ann Emmerling celebrated her seventh birthday last Monday as young hostess to several friends at a party at the Emmerling's place on Woodside court.

As an expression of gratitude for services rendered by the Franklin Fire Department when a fire was discovered in a basement room early in the morning of June 4, directors of the Franklin Hills Country Club have presented the department with funds for the purchase of two Scott Air-Packs, which will enable the volunteers to enter smoky, toxic atmosphere in the future in relative safety. This breathing apparatus is expected to arrive in two or three weeks. The new truck, delivery of which was seriously delayed by a strike at the fire apparatus plant, is about to enter the body shop there and is now promised for delivery early in August.

Garden Party Ends Season of Sewing

A group of eight neighborhood women have been meeting every two weeks throughout the year to sew pads for the American Cancer Society. A garden party and luncheon concluded their season Monday at the home of Mrs. Edward Wendt, 1155 Bird street, and was combined with a baby shower for Mrs. Charles Buel.

Included in the group are Mrs. Wendt, Mrs. Buel, Mrs. Alvin Lawrence, Mrs. Louis Harcourt, Mrs. Wilson Harbage, Mrs. Mabel Jurphy, Mrs. Roger Gintner and Mrs. William Lomas.
