SOUTHEAST OF BIRMINGHAM—Katheryn K. Hopkins, vice president and program chairman for the Royal Oak Garden club, has organized a junior branch in the Woodward Hills area between 14 Mile and Normandy roads.

She will open her home on Olivia avenue for their meetings to be held the second Monday of each month. The club will stress programs of interest to those gardening in a small area. At the first meeting the 20 charter members elected Mrs. Hopkins, chairman, Mrs. William Blazo, vice chairman, and Mrs. Robert Hearn, secretary. Residents of the area interested in joining the group should telephone Mrs. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Toepfer of Arlington road entertained over 40 guests at a garden party Sunday to celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of Toepfer's parents, the William Toepfers of Detroit.

Lights were strung about the garden and the garage was camouflaged with greens to make a garden setting for the buffet table. Gold colored flowers were used inside the house for decoration.

From Youngstown, Ohio, came Marvin Toepfer and his family to honor his parents. Another son, Lester and his family who live in Detroit were also present. Four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren attended the party.

Sunday, the George Sveed returned to their home on Essex road after spending a week at the Tremor hotel in Colorado Springs. Sightseeing occupied much of their time on this first trip west. They were surprised to meet another Royal Oak couple at the hotel, the Richard H. McGraws of Sycamore avenue.

Saturday evening the John Clarks entertained their potluck group at their home on Olivia. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. William Page, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Spier gathered around the bridge tables. Mr. and Mrs. Glyndell Elliott entertained their neighborhood pinocle club in their home on Tonowanda, Saturday night. Among the guests were the Joe Hoppers, Bud Grubbas, Shelton Rays and the John Quinns from Hampton Blvd.

George Ewing, son of the William Gorman of Mankato avenue, leaves tomorrow with his cousin, William Bullock, Jr. and his parents of Bird street, for Ft. Worth, Texas. The boys will spend the summer with their aunt and uncle, Technical Sergeant and Mrs. Edward T. Zelinski, formerly of Bird street.

Arlene Kanouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Kanouse of Benbridge road, has invited 15 children to a garden party, June 17, to celebrate her third birthday anniversary. Games and refreshments will occupy the guests while movies are made of them.

Christine, Suzanne and Loraine Sherry of Pontiac, Sharon and David Wicks of Huntington Woods and Bobby and Cheryl Ann Marsh of Beverly Hills will join Freddie
