

Goldsmith-Harley Rites Read at Christ Church

Joanna Harley of Bloomfield Hills and Donald Murray Goldsmith of Birmingham were united in marriage at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, June 19, at Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Robert DeWitt officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Harley of Oakleigh drive and Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Goldsmith of Brookwood road.

JOANNA'S gown was of tulle over white taffeta with appliques of Swiss organza and spotted with pearls. Her bouquet was of white phloxes and orchids and lilacs of the valley.

Identical bouquets of pale pink demure roses encircled by violet passies were carried by Nancy Clinger of Birmingham, maid of honor, and Katherine Wink of Highland Park and Janet Harkness of Huntington Woods, bridesmaids. Their gowns were of ice blue chiffon with tucked bodice and bouffant skirt.

THE NECKLINE was formed from soft folds of material continuing to the back and flowing down the skirt. Nancy's headpiece was an ice blue Juliet cap of braided edged with a tiny row of nylon ruching. The bridesmaids' headpieces were of tiny pink roses made to follow the falling in back.

Robert H. Goldsmith was his brother's best man. Ushers were Robert Kuffner of Dearborn, Ill.

Blue Ridge Mountain Trip for Honeymooners

Patricia Marie Porter and Jo Dewend Reiser exchanged wedding vows at 7:30 p.m. June 19, in the Community Congregational church. The Rev. John D. Rose read the double-ring candlelight rites before 300 wedding guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Porter, of Sunnybrook road. Jo is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reiser, of Marshall street.

Carrying a bouquet of white stephanotis and roses, Patricia's gown was fashioned with a white lace bodice, long lace sleeves and a full-length nylon tulle skirt with lace panels. A fingertip veil was attached to her Juliet cap.

HONOR attendant was Doreen Clapp of Royal Oak. She wore a pink nylon tulle strapless dress with a nylon stole. Her cascade bouquet was made of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Stauffer of Royal Oak, and Mrs.

Double Ring Rites Said in All Saints

In a double-ring ceremony at All Saints Episcopal church, Detroit, on Saturday afternoon, Natalia Maria Melnichuk became the bride of Robert Melvin Kashmerick. The vows were heard at 2 p.m. by the Rev. Burton S. Levering.

The bride was gowned in embroidered nylon styled with a high neckline and a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a skull cap of matching nylon. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis.

The new Mrs. Kashmerick is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex N. Melnichuk of Verona circle. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Kashmerick of Marygrove boulevard, Detroit.

SISTER of the groom, Lillian Kashmerick, was maid of honor. A bertha accented the bodice of her blue illusion ballerina length gown. Bridesmaids were Mary Ann Tschimowitz and Cathy Melnichuk, cousin and sister of the bride, respectively. They wore identical gowns of yellow nylon and carried yellow and white daisies.

The bridegroom's niece, Cheryl Kashmerick, was flower girl in a pink nylon frock and carried a

Marion Hesz Married In Monday Ceremony

Marion F. Hesz and Robert Edgar Berges were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Monday evening, June 14, at the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. W. Glen Harris and the Rev. Robert Graham officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hesz of 1723 their ballerina length costumes. The flower girls wore white embroidered organza frocks and carried miniature bouquets.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hesz wore a ballerina length gown of beige lace over rose taffeta with a full, sweeping skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a matching scalloped skull cap and her bouquet was of white glameias and ivy.

MRS. JOHN D. Klee was matron of honor and Rima Jean Nickell and Anne B. Scheyer were bridesmaids. Phyllis M. Wolf and Della E. Wolf of Bloomington, Ill., E. Wolf of Bloomington, Ill., and Mrs. William E. Miller, Jr., and Mrs. William Wink, Jr., Jr., and Mrs. Lee Keating, Jr., were flower girls.

Pale rose silk organza over taffeta was worn by the attendants. Dubonnet red glameias bouquets and matching headbands accented

Receives Award For Garden Club Extension Work

Mrs. William McCallum of 943 East Maple road received national recognition at the National convention of the Woman's Farm and Garden association held in Detroit. She was the recipient of a national award for outstanding achievement in extension work and has been elected to the national council for three years.

Mrs. McCallum has been instrumental in organizing many new clubs throughout Michigan in the past few years.

Other local chairmen receiving special state awards in their respective fields were Mrs. William Lowrie, conservation; Mrs. Harvey Bushnell, education; Mrs. Seth Blawson, program development and Mrs. William Howell, civic improvement.

In Kalamazoo at the convention of the Federated Garden clubs of Michigan an honorary award for community beautification was given to Mrs. Craig Riebel in recognition of her efforts as chairman of the local garden club show last December.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
