

Install Officers For Credit Club

Mrs. Katherine Shields was installing officer for the installation dinner of the Credit Women's Breakfast club on Tuesday evening at the Birmingham Community House. She was also presented a gift by the Birmingham club to show their appreciation for all her efforts in helping to organize the club.

The Rev. Reginald Becker of Embury Methodist church delivered the invocation. L. C. Fox, general manager of the Credit Bureau of Flint, was guest speaker and his topic was "Business for Profit." He was introduced by Wayne L. Combs, manager of the Birmingham Credit Bureau.

Centerpieces and storages for the officers, went to Mary-Ann Fairbanks, president; Irene Johnson, vice president; Joan Peluso, secretary; Mary Lou Gade, secretary; Ethel Bassett, Myrtle Rutten, Virginia Dubbs and Beatrice Gillespie comprise the board of directors.

There were 45 members and special guests present including Mayor Charles R. Rife, Herman Erke, Wilber Mason, Dorothy Pettit, Earl Becker, Mrs. L. C. Fox, 14 members of the Royal Oak club and eight members of the Flint club. (See picture, Section 3, Page 4)

At Canadian Meet

Representing the University of Michigan's chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Barbara Stauffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Stauffer, 311 Bryn Mawr will attend the 40th biennial convention at Jasper Park, Alberta, Canada.

VANCOUVER ISLAND, British Columbia, is the destination of Mrs. Donald R. Borgeson of Birchwood street, who is delegate of the North Suburban Alpha Phi alumnae group at the 10th general convention to be held June 27-July 2 at the Empress Hotel, Victoria. Mrs. Borgeson, a graduate of Michigan State college, is president of the local group. Collegiate and alumnae groups in the Pacific Northwest will act as hostesses to the anticipated 350 delegates.

Board Elects Officers for Second Term

Mrs. Mark B. Duffield, 612 Wimbeldon, was selected by the board of Oakland County Chapter of Planned Parenthood to head the organization for a second year when the board met Tuesday at the Community House.

Other officer selections were Mrs. Robert T. Hatt of Bloomfield Hills, vice chairman; Mrs. George L. Warriner of Pleasant Ridge, secretary; Mrs. Roy Reuther, 230 Big Beaver, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. William S. James, 4865 North Adams road, treasurer. With the exception of Mrs. James, all served the board in similar capacities last year.

Newly elected members of the board are: Mrs. Merrill O. Bades, 920 East Long Lake road, Mrs. Irving E. Gordon and Mrs. John D. Monroe of Pontiac; Miss Loreta Paul of Pontiac General Hospital; Mrs. Charles Renfrew, 319 Henley; and Mrs. Palmer Sutton, Royal Oak.

OTHER board members are Mrs. Charles Backus, 644 Kenneaw; Mrs. Robert Falberg, 319 East Brown street; Miss Sally Hunter, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Angus McLay, 715 Wimbeldon; Mrs. Carl Reynolds, 754 Sheppard; Mrs. Robert Turpin, Pontiac; and Mrs. Lee White, 652 Brookside.

Mrs. Angus McLay, supervisor for the three child spacing clinics Oakland County Planned Parenthood chapter operates, will be absent from her post this summer while she travels in Europe. Her work will be carried on by Mrs. Charles Renfrew assisted by volunteer workers from the board.

★ Smile a Minute...
The city woman was having trouble with the tangled cord on her telephone receiver. In through bad humor, she dialed the telephone company's service department, and when the man asked if she wished to report trouble, she replied: "Yes, my telephone receiver cord is too long, would you mind pulling a bit on your end of it!"
