

Mother-Daughter Banquet Held by Phi Sigma Tau

Tuesday, May 25, Phi Sigma Tau held their annual Mother and Daughter banquet at Bloomfield Hills high school. The dinner was exclusively for the girls in the club, their mothers and the faculty advisers. A fried chicken dinner was served before the evening program began.

Susan Cole acted as toast-mistress and began the program by welcoming the parent and faculty guests. Julie Hutchins opened the entertainment by playing a Chopin waltz on the piano.

Mrs. William Merrill from Willoway High School entertained with an informal talk and several dramatic readings.

The Triple Trio, composed of nine high school choir students, sang "All in a Golden Afternoon," "It's a Grand Night for Singing," and "Do Lord! Mary Lou Zeller sang "Just One More Chance" and "Sweetheart," by special request.

AN AMUSING PORTION OF the program came when the toast-mistress left to call the next person to appear and Mrs. Cole filled in with spontaneous humor.

The festivities ended after Mimi Coulter led the guests in group singing and played on her ukulele "Streets of Laredo," "Way Down Yonder" and "Lavender Gown." The school cafeteria was used for the banquet after being decorated with pastel crepe paper streamers and flowers across the ceiling, matching the paper napkins on the tables.

Lilies and greenery were worked in with decorations to create a spring atmosphere. A yellow and white floral arrangement for the speakers table was composed of carnations, anemones, gladioli, daisies and roses. FARRIS MACLENNAN.

Maples Whip Hazel Park To Win League Title

By JIM MOSBY.

The Maples clinched at least a tie for the Eastern Michigan league baseball flag last Thursday by thumping Hazel Park 4-1 and then learned later in the day they held it outright.

The new champions hold a League mark of six triumphs against a lone setback.

The Maples started off with a bang in the first frame when Jerry Wedge singled and was brought in on Eddie Goodfellow's homerun, the local's first fourbagger in three seasons.

In the second with one away Captain Jerry Beck singled and moved to second on an infield out. Wedge walked and stole second as Beck did third. Goodfellow likewise drew a base on balls, filling the bases with two gone.

THEN BILL ALLEN lit an infield grounder and with a foul out at the plate catcher Walt Toepfer dropped the ball, allowing Beck to tally. Chris Christie singled to left and "Doc Lord" Mary Lou Zeller sang "Just One More Chance" and "Sweetheart," by special request.

WINNER Dick Sheldon started his second game in three days for the Maples and had to be relieved in the fifth inning after he had fanned nine and allowed only two singles. Two walks and a base hit brought in the Viking's line tally in the fifth before sophomore Larry Miller came in to calm the fire-breath.

The Maples learned soon after their victory that Port Huron, 6th in only threat to share first place honors, had lost to Mt. Clemens 2-2 in 12 innings.

BIRMINGHAM had difficulty in stirring up more trouble in the remaining innings when Parker Bill Blackwell gave up just two hits while pitching very effectively but wildly.

The Maples stole six bases on the tight Vikings with Wedge, Christie and Beck each garnering two.

Football Captain One of Southfield High's Top Seniors

One of Southfield high school's leading seniors is Lyle Brown, who is the senior class president. Lyle has played football for Southfield for three years and was elected captain of 1953's football team.

As captain of the team, he reigned as king of the annual football dance. Lyle played center on the team, and with such ability that he was chosen for All-Conference honors and honorable mention for All-State.

His three varsity letters automatically makes him a charter member of Southfield's Varsity club, and he holds the office of historian of the club.

Lyle plans to study engineering at Michigan State college.

Paulus and Jim Broadwell, room chairman; Mary Seyferth, secretary, and Fritzie Harris and Mike Jackson, reporters.

Barb Beier had a birthday May 28. We are going to have a visitor from the high school next week, who intends to study about teaching. The fifth and sixth grade Service Squad and Safety Patrol went to a baseball game at Briggs Stadium. We were all glad that the Tigers won.

Mackinac Cruise Taken by Seniors Of Southfield

Southfield high school seniors and their chaperons boarded the S.S. South American Sunday, May 23 for a four-day cruise to Mackinac Island.

Seven other Michigan high schools also selected this trip for their seniors.

The ship was bustling with activity from the moment it pulled away from the dock.

After dinner on Sunday, the social whirl got underway with stunts and games held in the grand salon and later with dancing in the ballroom to the music of "The Four Dukes."

For those square dance enthusiasts, "The Three Terribles" held forth in the lobby.

Two hours ashore at Sault Ste. Marie on Monday afternoon was the first excursion for the sightseers.

Square Dance Held At Bloomfield High

Mr. Lewis furnished the music and calling for the May Mix, a square dance at Bloomfield High school Friday.

The dance was sponsored by the sophomore class and the entire high school was invited. Virginia Dowling, Maggie Paul and Sally Boyd headed the general committee and Sally Grisinger was in charge of decorations.

The dance was held in the all purpose room, decorated in western style with pieces of rail fencing, hay, colorful crepe paper and the added gaiety of dancing people in gay colored clothes. To add to the atmosphere a hay filled horse cart stood by the door with a large poster to welcome the guests.

Island where some took carriage rides to points of interest while others preferred to explore the island on horse back and bicycles.

Tuesday evening proved to be a gala one. An excellent talent show was given by the students in which Betty Ann Breiting represented Southfield. She won a lovely compact as a prize. The evening was closed by dancing in the ballroom.

The ship returned to Detroit Wednesday morning.
