

Will-O-Way To Select '54 Students

One Birmingham girl, Martha Korn Buhes, is among the six finalists who will audition before a board of judges on June 12. Others come from Marquette, Bronson, Detroit and Flint.

The girls were recommended for the scholarship of $250 plus room and board for the Will-O-Way Apprentice Theatre summer school, by the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs. Their studies at Will-O-Way are considered as a stepping stone into professional theatre work for young actresses.

Named to date.

With emphasis on the practical producing, directing and staging of plays, the summer students will study parts from 20 different plays this season. All scripts are chosen carefully to give a background of historical and writing types.

Picnic Meet Ends Season

Luncheon program meetings of Birmingham's AAUW will close traditionally on June 9 when members gather informally at the home of Mrs. Irving H. MacKenzie in Bloomfield Hills, 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. John T. Even, national board member of AAUW and vice president of the Northeast Central region, will be guest speaker. A resident of Aurora, Ill., and a practicing attorney, and a son and has chosen as her theme "Woman and Her Health." Mrs. Even will discuss the place of the educated woman in our society.

THE SPEAKER was graduated from the University of Illinois and received her LL.B. degree from Chicago Kent College of Law. She has two daughters and a son and is engaged in a number of community activities. In addition to her AAUW offices she is on the board of League of Women Voters, Girl Scouts, Council of Community Services and of president of the professional legal-assembly Kappa Beta Phi.

Members are asked to bring their own sandwiches, and dessert and coffee will be served picnic style, outdoors.

U-D Alumnae Lists Two Local Officers

Two Birmingham women, Mrs. John Erwin, 967 Ruffner, and Mrs. John Cautley, 2705 Manchester, are among the newly elected officers of the University of Detroit Alumnae association. They will serve as corresponding secretary and historian and publicity chairman, respectively.

The group is planning a June 13 mass at St. Agostus church in Detroit, followed by breakfast at the Stadler hotel for the university's June class.

★ Smile a Minute ...
"Did you enjoy your dinner, sir?" asked the solicitous restaurant proprietor.
"Yes, except the dessert. That was terrible."
"Oh, you have the plum tart or lemon pie?"
"I don't know. It tasted like glue."
"Ah! It was the plum tart. The lemon pie tastes like paste."
