

Nyberg-McKinley Vows Spoken In May 29 Rites

Nancy McKinley and Richard Nyberg were united in marriage at a morning ceremony May 29 in Our Shepherd Lutheran church. The Rev. H. G. Alward read the double ring rite at 10 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor J. McKinley of 156 E. Frank street; Richard's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Axel Nyberg of Walnut Lake.

Nancy chose a white linen suit with blue accessories and a white carnation corsage for her wedding. Her only attendant, her sister Sally Jane, was dressed in a tan suit with white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

Richard A. McKinley, brother of the bride, was best man. Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for Fort Knox, Ky., where Richard is attending Army radio school. The new Mrs. Nyberg will return home after a week's honeymoon.

AAUW Committees Work All Summer On Book Sale Plan

Summer vacation periods will mean but little to the committee on solicitations for the AAUW book sale, for their job must go on in order to assure enough books for a sale.

During the summer they will contact all AAUW members for books and set up a working arrangement with the transportation committee. This group is responsible for the collection of books and the establishment of storing depots.

Mrs. H. T. Bretelle of Hillcrest, recently gave a luncheon at her home for the committee which will handle solicitations. The group includes Mesdames N. C. Talmadge, Frank Fox, F. F. Bremer, M. S. Cheever, Charles Adams, Scott Smith, W. F. Boyer, Ross A. Wagner, T. J. LaFontaine, Ralph Lohman, D. L. Breegel and Gordon Hill.

Mrs. William M. Milligan, general chairman, also attended. Mrs. Bretelle said any AAUW members would receive book offers from non-members who wished to contribute to the sale. Other items to be handled include records, sheet music, games, pictures and patterns.

Book transportation and deposits are in charge of Mrs. A. M. Brown and Mrs. Arch H. Cipeford, Jr. The sale will be Oct. 17-23.

Birmingham Alumnae chapter of Delta Gamma will sponsor the presentation of "The Four Poster" at Will-O-Way playhouse on June 10. Proceeds from the benefit performance will be used in the alumnae's national philanthropic project of work for the blind.
