

MRS. CLAYTON JOYCE

Judith Olson Married To Marine Lieutenant

Wearing the candlelight satin gown worn by her sister, trimmed with rose-pointe lace from her mother's gown, Judith Elise Olson became the bride of Lt. Clayton Joyce, USMC, on Saturday.

Vows were exchanged at 7:30 p.m. in St. James Episcopal church, with the Rev. Harold Towne officiating at the double ring ceremony. A reception followed in the Southfield home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Hubbard.

Judith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren T. Gison of Madison avenue. Clayton's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Joyce of Walnut Lake.

THE BRIDAL gown was fashioned with a small stand-up collar, long sleeves and a full skirt with a long circular train. Rosepoint and duchess lace formed the tiny cap, originally worn by her mother, to which was attached a three-tiered fingertip veil. She carried stephanotis and pink roses.

Her only attendants were her sisters, Mrs. Robert L. Saffell, as matron of honor, and Molly Olson, bridesmaid. Both wore waist-length, fitted blue net frocks with strapless satin bodices and tulle skirts. Fitted blue satin jackets edged with pleated net covered

Chantilly Lace Worn For Lutheran Nuptials

Chantilly lace and nylon tulle was worn by Betty Marie Smith for her marriage to Richard Charles Shave. The waist length gown was fashioned with a lace molded bodice and a full skirt with alternate panels of lace and tulle. Her fingertip veil was attached to a crown headdress and she carried white roses and hyacinth.

The Rev. Theodore Wuggrazer officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony at 7 p.m., March 11, in the Redeemer Lutheran church. A reception followed in the church parlors for 150 wedding guests.

Highway Courtesy Basis of Contest Sponsored by K-P

Highway courtesy, as a means of saving lives, was adopted as a nationwide project over a year ago by the Fraternal Order of Knights of Pythias.

Now in its second year, this drive to help solve the traffic safety problem on the local level, current plans are being made to place the 1954 promotion on a contest basis. George Kachadurian, 1604 Henrietta, chancellor commander of Metropolitan lodge 278, has announced a speaking contest for this section. Entries from Troy township have already been received.

THE FIRST prize will be a trip to Washington, D. C., and Ottawa, Canada. The winner, whose expenses are all paid, will receive as gifts the two national flags which have flown over capitol buildings, the ones used during a recent radio broadcast made to celebrate the 90th anniversary of the founding of the Knights of Pythias.

Suggestions for the national contest may be mailed to Dale Stump, Columbus 15, Ohio, by individuals or organizations. Should the latter win the award, one person may be designated to make the trip and receive the flags.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shave of Adams road. Honor attendant, Dolores Burgess, wore a waist length frock with strapless bodice covered with the lace jacket. The skirt was nylon tulle. Bridesmaids were Laura Maschaw and Patricia Simmonsen. Lace jackets covered the strapless bodices of their pink and blue chantilly lace and tulle waist length gowns. Donna Smith, flower girl, wore a yellow frock of chantilly lace and tulle. All attendants wore short veils attached to a small headband and carried pink, blue, green and yellow carnations.

ROBERT Smith acted as best man. Seating the guests were Allen Brown, Richard Alexander, Dunne Wuggrazer and Russel Hubbard, all of Birmingham. Charles James was ringbearer. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith wore an aqua lace dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Shave wore pink accessories and pink camellias with her navy silk dress. The new Mrs. Shave donned a grey suit with navy and pink accessories and a white rose corsage to start their trip to Home, Ind. They will make their home in Royal Oak.
