

THE YOUNGER SET of one of Birmingham's newest sections gathered together to celebrate Pammy Cooper's third birthday Feb. 27. Residents of the 25 new homes on East Lincoln between Tuunion and Eton found during the past year that common home-making problems have welded them into a close social group with frequent neighborhood parties, a sewing club, two bridge clubs and a bowling team. Pictured at the children's party, starting at lower left and reading clockwise are: Diana Haikalis, Gordon Olson, Connie Gorsuch, Tommy Gorsch, Pammy Cooper, Mary Moore, Debbie Eggen, Lynn Brandt, Bobby Brandt and Cassandra Haikalis (in high chair).

Players Prepare 'The Heiress' for Invitational Show

"The Heiress" has been selected by Village Players at the March Invitational production. This dramatic two-act play will be presented at the Chestnut street playhouse Friday and Saturday evenings, March 26 and 27, to members and their guests.

Mrs. Berrien C. Ketchum will handle directorial duties assisted by Mrs. F. C. Guest.

Suggestion for this play came from the Henry James novel "Washington Square" and was developed for the stage by Ruth and Augustus Goetz. Basil Rathbone was the headliner when "The Heiress" was first presented at the Biltmore theater in New York City in 1947.

THE STORY revolves around the family and fortune of Dr. Austin Sloper, a distinguished middle-aged man of the 18th century. Members of the scenic and properties committees will have their imagination challenged to reproduce the Sloper parlor with its kerosene lamps, elaborate draperies and Victorian furniture.

Members of the cast and committee will be announced at a later date.
