

Birthday Party Held For Donna Riching

By ELIZABETH B. SMITH
Staff Correspondent
MI 4-2723

NORTH ADAMS—In the Donald T. Riching household on Charing Cross road family birthday parties are a tradition. So, Sunday, May 2, when Donna turned four years, a birthday celebration was in order. She had her party, complete with dropping clothes pins in a bottle, musical chairs, prizes and ice cream and cake.

Joanne Smith returned home this week from New York city to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Smith of Brookdale road. Miss Smith is with the American Broadcasting Co. and is secretary to George Jessel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Bigelow of North Adams road returned last week from a two months vacation at the Sea Garden hotel at Pampano Beach, Fla., and the Hollywood Beach hotel at Hollywood, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bennett of Philadelphia joined them for the last four weeks of their stay and flew back to Michigan with them. Last year the two couples also vacationed together.

Mrs. Bigelow was very enthusiastic about her plans for land-scaping her place. The maples that were transplanted in February were leafing when she returned home. She is going to surround her terrace with hyacinth plants because she loved them so in Florida. She said that with her house, her gardening and her riding (the Bigelows have two horses that they keep at the Bloomfield Open Hunt) she will be a busy lady.

Have you met Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Putzig? They live at 1093 Greentree and are mighty proud of their pretty yard. They have a son, Jim, who is on the baseball team at Vaughan school. Mrs. Putzig is kept very busy with her work in ceramics. As Mr. Putzig is retired he finds many pleasant hours with his gardening.

Members of St. Veronica's Guild of Holy Name church were invited to a coffee on Tuesday morning given at the home of Mrs. John Daneke on Mokena road. Mrs. Joseph E. Beckley of Brookdale road was co-hostess with Mrs. Daneke.

About one hundred and sixty members of Holy Name Altar Society attended a breakfast at Devon Gables the first Tuesday in May after Mass and Communion service. Mrs. Irene Murphy spoke to the group on her trip to the Philippines. For this reason her talk was one of comparisons in which she could show those present just how much has been accomplished in the Philippines in four years' time.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Terry of Dover court have returned from a trip to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Embury have moved to 4135 Rouge circle in Troy township. Mr. Embury is assistant trim supervisor of Fisher Body.

The Emburys have three children, Marilyn, who is fourteen years old and Billy and Ray, whose ages are twelve and seven. The boys find that fishing and exploring along the banks of the Rouge river are lots of fun and quite different from the city life they were used to in Detroit. Marilyn was honor guest at a birthday party the other night. Her mother invited eight teenagers for dinner. The group went to the movies and polished off the evening with hamburgers and such.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson moved to their new home at 2755 Lanegan the first of April. Mr. Watson is employed by the American Society of Tool Engineers as an associate editor of The Tool Engineer. The Watsons and their two children, Elizabeth age three and one half, and Robert, aged two and one half, lived in Mountain Lakes, N. J., before coming to Michigan. Mr. Watson is interested in photography. When they lived in New Jersey he was active in the dramatic club there.

Members of the North Adams Protective Association have for the last two years remained the fact that thoughtless persons have used their residences as dumping grounds. Now they are going to do something about it. They have learned that the defacing of property is punishable by law.

Mrs. William Franks, 5455 Beach road, has posters announcing just that and any member of the Association desiring to post his property with a warning can procure one from Mrs. Franks. It may be of further interest to local residents that there are dumping grounds provided by the townships; location of which can be found by calling the township offices.

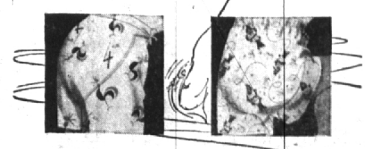

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Smith of Beach road entertained the William J. Franks and the William R. Rudells at dinner Saturday evening.

TYPEWRITERS
 ADDING MACHINES
REPAIRED
 New and Rebuilt Typewriters
 For Sale—Rentals
Birmingham Printing
 369 EAST MAPLE • MI 4-4740

Let's go fishing...

in bold new ARROW Shorts

Casting about for style and color? Come in and see these smart, new ARROW shorts! A fresh group of designs called "Let's go fishin'." They won't chafe or ride up ever—because they're tailored with a roomy contoured seat, pleated crotch, and no center seam. Sanitized® broadcloth that won't shrink over 1%. Ask for these Arrow shorts in your favorite waistband style.

Mortimer's
MEN'S STYLE CENTER
123 West Maple

JEAN CAMPAU MCGREGOR

Engagement Announced To Doctor

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. McGregor of Wing Lake announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Campau, to Dr. Donald Critchfield Graves, son of Mrs. John P. Graves of Great Falls, Mont., and the late Dr. Graves.

Miss McGregor is a graduate of Kingswood School, Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills, and Smith College, Northampton, Mass. She is a member of the Junior League.

Dr. Graves attended the University of Montana, where he was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity, and is a graduate of Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis. He is presently resident psychiatrist at Payne Whitney Clinic, The New York Hospital, and is an instructor at Cornell University Medical School in New York City.

A fall wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Smith of Beach road entertained the William J. Franks and the William R. Rudells at dinner Saturday evening.

BE SAFE... NOT SORRY!

Store Your Tires at dependable 67-year-old ANNIS

Phone WO. 2-0022

for pick-up

Area WNFG Maps Special Details Of Annual Meet

Over 600 delegates are expected to attend the 40th annual meeting of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association in Detroit, May 18-21. Michigan's 56 divisions are in charge, with prominent roles assigned to the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills units.

Highlight for these two groups will be May 20, when Cranbrook Day is celebrated under the direction of Mrs. Donald D. James. Activities this day will include the Apple Blossom luncheon scheduled immediately before the tour of Cranbrook institutions and gardens.

A special flower show will be staged in the art museum. It is planned to have flower arrangements designed to complement the paintings of the masters which hang there.

Mrs. Donald D. James will have charge of these arrangements, with the assistance of Mrs. Irving MacKeltzie.

AT THE AWARDS luncheon on Wednesday, when charter members and those who have been members 30 years or more will be honored, the Birmingham branch will handle table decorations.

Mrs. John Osler will head the group composed of Mrs. C. R. Obermyer, Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. J. Graham Gurney, Mrs. C. R. Harman and Mrs. George O. Cutter.

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO.
 724 N. Woodward
 CHOICE
Round Steak
 Ground or Swiss Lb. 79¢

Other committee members from this area include Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, hospitality and Mrs. Max Fruhauf, Michigan division sale.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills gardens to be visited during the meeting will be Mrs. S. V. Northrup, Mrs. D. R. Strigley, Mrs. A. G. Helgeson, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Roger Kyes, Mrs. Marcus Cunningham, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Ham, Tea will be served in the Cunningham and Kyes gardens, with members of the Franklin and Berkshire branches assisting.

Among them are Mr. and Mrs. James J. Nance who will head a group of 25; the William S. Spiegals who have a table for 10; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mark in a group of eight, and the John C. Hampsons at a table for four.

A few of those with reservations later on in the show week are the James H. McPhails, Mr. and Mrs. Leo I. Gibbons, the Karl Pfeiffers and the Frederick W. Zimmermanns.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Make Reservations For DAC Floor Show

Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills members of the Detroit Athletic Club are tagging tables for the dinner-floor show the club will present from Monday evening, May 17, through Saturday, May 22.

Among them are Mr. and Mrs. James J. Nance who will head a group of 25; the William S. Spiegals who have a table for 10; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mark in a group of eight, and the John C. Hampsons at a table for four.

A few of those with reservations later on in the show week are the James H. McPhails, Mr. and Mrs. Leo I. Gibbons, the Karl Pfeiffers and the Frederick W. Zimmermanns.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Area WNFG Maps Special Details Of Annual Meet

Over 600 delegates are expected to attend the 40th annual meeting of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association in Detroit, May 18-21. Michigan's 56 divisions are in charge, with prominent roles assigned to the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills units.

Highlight for these two groups will be May 20, when Cranbrook Day is celebrated under the direction of Mrs. Donald D. James. Activities this day will include the Apple Blossom luncheon scheduled immediately before the tour of Cranbrook institutions and gardens.

A special flower show will be staged in the art museum. It is planned to have flower arrangements designed to complement the paintings of the masters which hang there.

Mrs. Donald D. James will have charge of these arrangements, with the assistance of Mrs. Irving MacKeltzie.

AT THE AWARDS luncheon on Wednesday, when charter members and those who have been members 30 years or more will be honored, the Birmingham branch will handle table decorations.

Mrs. John Osler will head the group composed of Mrs. C. R. Obermyer, Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. J. Graham Gurney, Mrs. C. R. Harman and Mrs. George O. Cutter.

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO.
 724 N. Woodward
 CHOICE
Round Steak
 Ground or Swiss Lb. 79¢

Other committee members from this area include Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, hospitality and Mrs. Max Fruhauf, Michigan division sale.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills gardens to be visited during the meeting will be Mrs. S. V. Northrup, Mrs. D. R. Strigley, Mrs. A. G. Helgeson, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Roger Kyes, Mrs. Marcus Cunningham, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Ham, Tea will be served in the Cunningham and Kyes gardens, with members of the Franklin and Berkshire branches assisting.

Among them are Mr. and Mrs. James J. Nance who will head a group of 25; the William S. Spiegals who have a table for 10; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mark in a group of eight, and the John C. Hampsons at a table for four.

A few of those with reservations later on in the show week are the James H. McPhails, Mr. and Mrs. Leo I. Gibbons, the Karl Pfeiffers and the Frederick W. Zimmermanns.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Area WNFG Maps Special Details Of Annual Meet

Over 600 delegates are expected to attend the 40th annual meeting of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association in Detroit, May 18-21. Michigan's 56 divisions are in charge, with prominent roles assigned to the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills units.

Highlight for these two groups will be May 20, when Cranbrook Day is celebrated under the direction of Mrs. Donald D. James. Activities this day will include the Apple Blossom luncheon scheduled immediately before the tour of Cranbrook institutions and gardens.

A special flower show will be staged in the art museum. It is planned to have flower arrangements designed to complement the paintings of the masters which hang there.

Mrs. Donald D. James will have charge of these arrangements, with the assistance of Mrs. Irving MacKeltzie.

AT THE AWARDS luncheon on Wednesday, when charter members and those who have been members 30 years or more will be honored, the Birmingham branch will handle table decorations.

Mrs. John Osler will head the group composed of Mrs. C. R. Obermyer, Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. J. Graham Gurney, Mrs. C. R. Harman and Mrs. George O. Cutter.

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO.
 724 N. Woodward
 CHOICE
Round Steak
 Ground or Swiss Lb. 79¢

Other committee members from this area include Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, hospitality and Mrs. Max Fruhauf, Michigan division sale.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills gardens to be visited during the meeting will be Mrs. S. V. Northrup, Mrs. D. R. Strigley, Mrs. A. G. Helgeson, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Roger Kyes, Mrs. Marcus Cunningham, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Ham, Tea will be served in the Cunningham and Kyes gardens, with members of the Franklin and Berkshire branches assisting.

Among them are Mr. and Mrs. James J. Nance who will head a group of 25; the William S. Spiegals who have a table for 10; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mark in a group of eight, and the John C. Hampsons at a table for four.

A few of those with reservations later on in the show week are the James H. McPhails, Mr. and Mrs. Leo I. Gibbons, the Karl Pfeiffers and the Frederick W. Zimmermanns.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Area WNFG Maps Special Details Of Annual Meet

Over 600 delegates are expected to attend the 40th annual meeting of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association in Detroit, May 18-21. Michigan's 56 divisions are in charge, with prominent roles assigned to the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills units.

Highlight for these two groups will be May 20, when Cranbrook Day is celebrated under the direction of Mrs. Donald D. James. Activities this day will include the Apple Blossom luncheon scheduled immediately before the tour of Cranbrook institutions and gardens.

A special flower show will be staged in the art museum. It is planned to have flower arrangements designed to complement the paintings of the masters which hang there.

Mrs. Donald D. James will have charge of these arrangements, with the assistance of Mrs. Irving MacKeltzie.

AT THE AWARDS luncheon on Wednesday, when charter members and those who have been members 30 years or more will be honored, the Birmingham branch will handle table decorations.

Mrs. John Osler will head the group composed of Mrs. C. R. Obermyer, Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. J. Graham Gurney, Mrs. C. R. Harman and Mrs. George O. Cutter.

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO.
 724 N. Woodward
 CHOICE
Round Steak
 Ground or Swiss Lb. 79¢

Other committee members from this area include Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, hospitality and Mrs. Max Fruhauf, Michigan division sale.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills gardens to be visited during the meeting will be Mrs. S. V. Northrup, Mrs. D. R. Strigley, Mrs. A. G. Helgeson, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Roger Kyes, Mrs. Marcus Cunningham, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Ham, Tea will be served in the Cunningham and Kyes gardens, with members of the Franklin and Berkshire branches assisting.

Among them are Mr. and Mrs. James J. Nance who will head a group of 25; the William S. Spiegals who have a table for 10; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mark in a group of eight, and the John C. Hampsons at a table for four.

A few of those with reservations later on in the show week are the James H. McPhails, Mr. and Mrs. Leo I. Gibbons, the Karl Pfeiffers and the Frederick W. Zimmermanns.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Area WNFG Maps Special Details Of Annual Meet

Over 600 delegates are expected to attend the 40th annual meeting of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association in Detroit, May 18-21. Michigan's 56 divisions are in charge, with prominent roles assigned to the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills units.

Highlight for these two groups will be May 20, when Cranbrook Day is celebrated under the direction of Mrs. Donald D. James. Activities this day will include the Apple Blossom luncheon scheduled immediately before the tour of Cranbrook institutions and gardens.

A special flower show will be staged in the art museum. It is planned to have flower arrangements designed to complement the paintings of the masters which hang there.

Mrs. Donald D. James will have charge of these arrangements, with the assistance of Mrs. Irving MacKeltzie.

AT THE AWARDS luncheon on Wednesday, when charter members and those who have been members 30 years or more will be honored, the Birmingham branch will handle table decorations.

Mrs. John Osler will head the group composed of Mrs. C. R. Obermyer, Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. J. Graham Gurney, Mrs. C. R. Harman and Mrs. George O. Cutter.

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO.
 724 N. Woodward
 CHOICE
Round Steak
 Ground or Swiss Lb. 79¢

Other committee members from this area include Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, hospitality and Mrs. Max Fruhauf, Michigan division sale.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills gardens to be visited during the meeting will be Mrs. S. V. Northrup, Mrs. D. R. Strigley, Mrs. A. G. Helgeson, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Roger Kyes, Mrs. Marcus Cunningham, Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mrs. Ham, Tea will be served in the Cunningham and Kyes gardens, with members of the Franklin and Berkshire branches assisting.

Among them are Mr. and Mrs. James J. Nance who will head a group of 25; the William S. Spiegals who have a table for 10; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mark in a group of eight, and the John C. Hampsons at a table for four.

A few of those with reservations later on in the show week are the James H. McPhails, Mr. and Mrs. Leo I. Gibbons, the Karl Pfeiffers and the Frederick W. Zimmermanns.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.