

Mr. and Mrs. McCall Honeymoon in Virginia

Charles Duncan McCall, Jr., claimed Elizabeth Rawson Vaile as his bride in a Saturday afternoon ceremony in Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. L. DeWitt officiated at the double-ring candlelight rites.

B'ham Alumnae Plan Panhellenic Tea For Senior HS Girls

Birmingham Panhellenic tea honoring senior girls of Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Kingswood schools will be at 2 p.m., May 15, at the Community House. The three-part program planned by Mrs. Edward McCall will include a talk on college fashions, selections by a choral group and a panel discussion by representatives of college panhellenics. It will be moderated by Mrs. Russell Costello.

Planning refreshments are Mrs. M. J. Tapp, Mrs. Chester Bowie and Mrs. Milton Malender. In charge of decorations are Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. Arthur Gensung, Mrs. Julian Gally and Mrs. J. R. Huntley.

Sorority Officer

Charlotte Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Wiley of 509 Willetts street, was elected an officer of Tau Zeta Epsilon sorority at Wellesley college, Mass. The group is an extra-curricular organization open to juniors and seniors interested in art and music. Charlotte is a junior majoring in chemistry and was secretary and treasurer of her freshman dormitory.

Elizabeth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rawson Vaile, 864 Pilgrim. Charles' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duncan McCall, of West Hartford, Conn. The bride was gowned in white satin, accented with a front panel of alencon lace. The same lace edged the boat neckline and long sleeves came to points over the wrist. Attached to a matching skirt cap was her three tiered veil of illusion which extended over the full length train. She carried orchids and lilies of the valley.

HONOR attendant was Mrs. William A. McCall. Acting as bridesmaids were Myra Morehouse and Janet Miller, and junior bridesmaid was Molly Marshall. All attendants wore identical white length gowns of blue-green taffeta with matching hats. They carried rumbling lilies.

William A. McCall was best man. Seating the guests were Richard Baird of Fairborn, O., Robert Halstead and Norman Porter. Mrs. Vaile attended the wedding and reception following at Orchard Lake Country club, in a street length pale blue dress and matching hat. Mrs. McCall chose a gray chiffon ensemble with matching hat. For traveling Elizabeth donned a red and white checked suit with blue accessories. The couple are honeymooning at Tides Inn, Ya. They plan to make their home in Birmingham.

FOR THE BRIDE... FOR MOTHER

* America's most famous bedspread can now be yours. Made exclusively by Bates, it is the only spread of its type that combines all combined yards with the heaviest construction originated by Bates for this design and expensive double-knotting fringe. It is reversible, washable, pre-shrunk... and carries a certificate of authenticity which registers it permanently in the owner's name.

* Because of its incredibly intricate craftsmanship, the limited supply of Bates "George Washington's Choice" has never been able to meet the demand. This month, however, we have made a special arrangement for extra stock—PLUS an extra gift for you!
