Baldwin Fair Proceeds Helps New Beverly PTA

By VIRGINIA DETWILER
Staff Correspondent

WEST BEVERLY—The Baldwin school fair went "over the top" in no uncertain fashion last Friday, with more than 150 parents donating time and effort to insure its success. Well-attended and well-organized, the fair offered 17 activities to its little (and big) customers.

Overwhelmed by the unqualified cooperation given the fair, chairman W. K. Gloman and co-chairmen, Mrs. Thomas Stolberg and William Duhn, cannot find suitable words of praise for all concerned. When the dust and din cleared away, officials announced a net profit of about $1,200, one-third of which will go to the Beverly school PTA in the fall.

Last weekend, the Charles S. Hazards, of Riverside drive, entertained her brother and new sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bard Battelle, of Palo Alto, Calif.

The D. J. Dugans held a very special family reunion in their Balmoral road home two weeks ago. Their nephew, Lt. Bill Smith, just back from two years' army service in Korea, visited for the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of Pittsburgh.

On May 10, the West Beverly Hills women's bowling league will end up its season with a banquet in Rotunda Inn. A business meeting and election of officers will be held at that time, followed by the awarding of trophies and prize money by the league president, Mrs. Stewart Barton.

Neither illness nor unavoidable absence could deny Team 2 first place in this year's bowling league competition. With Mrs. William Margrove at home with mumps, and Mrs. Harry Granader away on a fishing trip, the team's prospects looked fairly dim for their last game May 3. Coming through to save the day were the team's captain, Mrs. Francis McCracken, Mrs. John Cataldo, Mrs. Fred Tie-man, and two substitutes, Mrs. Charles Granader and Mrs. James Williams, of Royal Oak.

John Russell Blackburn is a brand-new addition to the Russell C. Blackburn family, of Beverly road. Born April 22, John has a brother, Jimmy, 7.

Back from a two-week Florida vacation with their children, Tommy and Nancy, are Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pitts, of Kinross road, who returned April 28 from Sarasota. The Arthur Lanes, of Bedford road, went back to college recently, to attend parents' weekend at Albion college as guests of their daughter, Nancy. A junior at Albion college, Nancy is the new president of Delta Gamma, and will be her chapter's delegate to the sorority's convention at Sun Valley in June.

A good advertisement for air travel is Mrs. William Paddison, of Mayfair lane, who felt nervous in her car after traveling six different planes on the family's recent two-week vacation. With daughter, Wendy, the Paddisons visited Pompano, Boca Raton, Cuba and Nassau. Accompanying them while they were in Florida were the R. W. Muhlters and children, Nancy and David, of Birmingham.

Back in their Mayfair lane home after a three-week vacation, are the R. B. McMillans, and sons, Robert and Bill. They returned May 2 from Lauderdale by the Sea, where they stayed at Tides Inn.

John L. Shepherd, of Warwick road, and Dr. E. W. Deer, of Birmingham, returned May 2 from a two-week golfing and fishing vacation at Pompano and Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

New residents at 18870 Riverside drive are Dr. Maurice Howitt and Dr. Margaret Howitt, who moved here from Detroit in January. They have two children, Janice, 6, and John, 3. Both are anesthesiologists at Detroit Ophthalmic hospital.
