Council Candidates At Southfield High In Poster Campaign

Candidates for Student Council offices at Southfield high school have been huddling with artistic friends to come up with novel ideas in the "Battle of the Posters."

As a result of this activity, halls at the high school are resplendent with posters setting forth the various attributes of candidates Bob Quirk, Dave Ortnor, Maya Ritins and others.

The presidential race between Quirk and Ortnor is the hottest in Council history.

Six Music Pupils Win Scholarships

Birmingham Musicals this week awarded six scholarships to deserving music students at Birmingham high school.

The scholarships of $50 will be used as partial tuition for the summer music camps of their choice.

John Gassaway, John Keriely, Carolyn Shattuck, and Jane Russell will attend Interlochen while Pat Barkley and Mary Jo Alligree will go to Michigan State College.

Also this year a memorial scholarship of $25 was set up to be given to the most outstanding winner. Joan Gassaway won the scholarship for this year.

The memorial scholarship was dedicated by Mrs. Harry Bayler and Mrs. Alta Parkhurst in memory of their sister.

★ Smile a Minute ...

Willie: Mother, do fairy tales always begin with "once upon a time?"

Mother: No, dear, not always. They sometimes begin with "My love, I will be detained at the office tonight."
