BERKSHIRE—Residents in the area bounded by Lahser, Lincoln, 14 Mile and Telegraph roads have begun plans to form an organization to be known as the South Bloomfield Improvement Association.

The second meeting of this group was held on May 6, 8 p.m. in the Bloomfield Township Hall with B. William Westcott, 3733 Lincoln drive, acting as temporary chairman.

Main purpose of this meeting was to elect members for the board of directors. One director from each of the five zones within the area was elected.

Directors elected were B. William Westcott, John Schachinger, 7500 Greenwich drive, Russell D. Hughes, 7345 Chula Vista lane, Paul F. Droegge, 7330 Jackson Park drive and Robert D. Denly, 5841 Wedgewood drive.

Officers of this association are to be chosen from the board of directors, who will then sign the articles of incorporation. These articles and the plan of organization were drawn up by a committee headed by Walter A. Markin, 7335 Chula Vista lane.

Further business of the meeting included a discussion of area problems involving future water supply, sewers, road repairs and inspection of home plans before construction is begun.

Announcement of the date of the next meeting is to be made in two weeks.

Berkshire's branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association held a plant and bake sale Tuesday, May 4, at the home of Mrs. Norman J. Ellis, 7425 Lahser drive.

Following lunch, there was a short business meeting. Mrs. Walter H. Hadley, president, presiding. A card party was planned for June 9, to be held at the home of Mrs. Walter A. Markin, 7335 Chula Vista lane.

Mrs. Donald A. Plankel of Parkstone lane, will entertain this evening in her home, the Past Matrons Club of the Fernside Chapter, OES, No. 460.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Hughes of Chula Vista lane, and Mrs. Anne Rodgers, of Detroit, left last Friday to spend Mother's Day with Mrs. Hughes' mother, Mrs. J. E. Young of Van Wert, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Jackson, E. Greenwich drive, entertained at a Mother's Day dinner on Thursday, May 6, honoring Mr. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Clem Jackson of Pontiac.

Besides the honored guest, others present at the dinner were Mr. Clem Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Walldorf, of Pontiac. Favors were given each guest and a host of pawns graced the table.

It's a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Michaels, of Parkhurst drive, Thomas Otis was born April 26, at Harper hospital. The Michaels also have two daughters, Marilyn and Jane.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Brian, who recently moved into their new home at 3700 Lincoln drive. The Brians came here from Kansas City. They have two daughters, Barbara, a freshman at the Birmingham high school and Beverly, a former sophomore student at the University of Arizona, who plans to continue her studies nearer home. Mr. Brian is employed by the General Motors Corp.

House guests at the Brian home this past week were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woessner of San Marino, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson of Winnetka, Ill., arrive this
