

Eastern Honeymooners Reside in New Jersey

A bluish taffeta gown was worn by Ann Elizabeth Faulkner for her marriage to Robert E. Esch. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a rounded neckline edged with lace and long sleeves buttoned at the wrists. Graceful folds of the full skirt fell into a short sweeping train. Her fingertip veil was of Brussels lace and she carried white roses, ivy and lilies of the valley.

The rites were read at 8 p.m. Saturday at Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Walter Young and the Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated.

Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Faulkner, 1011 Yorkshire. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph E. Esch, 740 Fairfax.

Wedding and reception, following in the church house, in a full length gown of seafair green organza over taffeta with a small matching hat. Mrs. Esch chose a rose-beige organza gown.

Ann donned a navy suit with navy and white accessories for her eastern wedding trip. The couple will make their home in Ft. Monmouth, N.J.

COUSIN of the bride, Mrs. E. E. Carter of St. Louis, Mo., was matron of honor and Carol Faulkner was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Watkins and Joyce Woolfenden. All attendants wore ballerina length gowns of rose taffeta with a petal neckline and cap sleeves. They had bouquets and headpieces of pantries and ivy.

Linda Heiserman, junior bridesmaid, was gowned in pink taffeta. The ballerina length frock was fashioned with a boat neckline and wide collar. Her flowers were identical to the other attendants.

Robert Reichard was best man. Seating the guests were Brandon L. Rigney, Jr., Lawrence Buckland, Robert Kasprzak, John Bradshaw and Richard Neergaard.
