

Final Party At Rotunda For Bowlers

West Beverly Hills Women's Bowling League held its second and final party of the year last week, a buffet luncheon at Rotunda Inn. The tables, decorated with tall lighted tapers and yellow and white tulips and daffodils, were done by Dorothy Olsen and Ada Van Dresser.

The winning team, consisting of Louise Margrove, Mabel McCracken, Sylvia Granader, Muriel Tie-man and Louise Cataldo, was presented with winner's trophies. Louise Cataldo also received a trophy presented by Bloomfield Lanes for having raised her average the most since November. Roberta Welch received the trophy awarded for the second place winner.

CONGRATULATIONS for perfect attendance were extended to Ruth Hartner, Adrienne Gilmore, Stephanie Cerniak, Muriel Tie-man and Mary Bellan.

A gift of summer jewelry was presented to the outgoing president, Elettia Barton, by the bowling league.

Individual high single game honors went to Lillis Racine for a game of 206, and individual high series honors to Vera Neermeier for a series of 544.

New officers elected for the coming year are as follows: president, Vera Neermeier; vice president, Florence Chekaway; secretary, Elva Beukema; treasurer, Gertrude Kremps; and press agent and sergeant-at-arms, Lucille Zebede.

Plans are being made to resume bowling on Monday, September 13, at 12:45 p.m. at Bloomfield Lanes. The league is interested in getting more bowlers for the 1954-55 season, and anyone interested may contact the officers for more information.
