

Students Win Prizes For 'Clean-Up' Posters

The children in all grades including the Kindergarten had great fun in making posters for Clean-up week. The contest was sponsored by the Walnut Lake Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association.

Each grade was promised a prize, so they went to work in earnest. Howard Malwitz started them in art class, but many worked at home and in spare moments.

Mrs. R. C. Banker, president, and Mrs. Cass Brovarney awarded the prizes. A rake, hoe, shovel, sprinkling can and seeds to the Kindergarten winner, a basket of pansies both to the First and Second Grade, a rose bush in the Third Grade and also in the Fourth Grade, and each of the winners in the Fifth and Sixth Grades received a flowering crab.

THE WINNERS WERE: Kindergarten, Sherry Madden; First Grade, Todd Brown; Second Grade, Hugh Nickel; Third Grade, Tom Ringman; Fourth Grade, Gerald Gibson; Fifth Grade, Lynne Robertson; and Sixth Grade, Dick Muir.

Yellow ribbons were given to the following: Kindergarten, Ronny VanSickle, Jimmy Mack, Ronny Robertson, and Susan Harness; First Grade, Joyce Smith, Sandy Stevenson, Ricky Smith, and Carolyn Marx; Second Grade, Peter Bunn, Jan Morton, Suzanne Waller, Mike Whim; Third Grade, Lynne Weaver, Eric Woodward, Christine Layman, and Susan Robinson; Fourth Grade, Bob Allen, Don Enrich, Raymond Granger, and Bob Rice; Fifth Grade, Richard Menley, Ronald Borquist, Karen Smith, and David Sanborn; and Sixth Grade, Robert Sinta, Corinne Sarlund, Cleve King, and Jerry Chalmers.

It was very hard to judge the posters for there were many very good ones.

THE PTA meeting for May was held in the new all-purpose room, and the kitchen was far enough toward completion to be open for use. All the garden club posters were on display except the prize-winning posters which are on display in the grocery.

Dr. Dwight E. Ireland spoke and new officers were installed. Then each grade gave a tape recording of a class discussion occurring in the social studies program.

The Kindergarten talked about the garden they were going to make, and invited the audience to visit their room after the program to see what they had done. The First Graders have been studying about the fire station, and had written stories about it. Their reading of these stories was taped, and they showed a mural they had made about it.

The Second Grade was just getting started on a project on food, and they planned how to go about it. In their room they had an exhibit of wheat — the farm where it is raised, the bakery, and the store where bread is sold.

THE THIRD Grade reviewed a study on highways, and had a large mural to show. The Fourth Grade recorded a discussion about three of our large cities, and showed a mural of them.

The Fifth Grade gave a travelogue of United States Possessions, and had many interesting and informative pictures and murals in the room. The Sixth Grade tape was that which was broadcast April 22, a play entitled "Invasion From the Stratosphere".

Following the program, they showed maps done in a number of interesting ways and pictures done by the children on the "Geography of the Americas."

After the audience visited all the rooms, refreshments were served in the all purpose room.

The School Fair put on by the PTA is coming June 5. It has been announced that the best poster in each grade will be awarded a prize. So the children are again seeking ideas with great enthusiasm.

Three Records Fall In Troy Victory

Troy high trackmen broke three school records as they handed Clawson its first dual meet loss of the season, Monday, 60 2-5 to 48 3-5.

Fred Burrard ran the 100 in 10.3 bettering the old record of 10.5, set in 1951. Jim Pouget snapped his own 880 mark, 2:10.1, set last year by going the distance in 2:05.5. Max Lankford leaped 19'10" for the new broad jump mark. The old was 19 ft. 6 inches.

Ken Gibbard of Clawson was the meet's only double winner. He took the shot and high jump.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

First Grade—Mr. Ayer. We had our second Polio shot on Wednesday. As a reward for being so good we received suckers. Our good citizens for this time are Sally Lafer—David Smith.

Last week's winners Cindy Davies and Benjamin Robertson. Winners for this week pronounce down Butterflies—Sally Lafer. Bluebirds—Mark Olson, Rockets—Diane Flajole. Jets—Mike Bannion.

Second Grade—Mrs. Gregory. This week was brightened with the news of two birthdays. Both Connie Woolson and John Floren. Connie treated us to suckers on Wednesday which also was our Polio shot day. Janie Cooper was our very competent monitor for the week. We have been so busy working on our book reports that her job was easier than usual.

OUR REPORTS are most interesting. There are illustrations being made to accompany each subject. We began work on Roman numerals and are indeed glad we do not have to use them all of the time. Sandy Eymon got a bad cut on his head last week end but he is as enthusiastic as ever. Nothing can keep this class down for long. We also got word that Jimmy Fox has a new baby brother. Again we say congratulations.

Third Grade—Mrs. Fike. The President is David West. The Vice President is Jim Copeland. The good citizens are Sandy Riddell and John Slater. First, second and third grades got polio shots. Nancy Judd has been to Florida a long time. She is coming back in June.

Sixth Grade—Mr. Crandall. Tuesday, May 11th, the counselors from Harum, Miss Bruehl and Mr. Tindall came over and told us about Barnum Jr. High. The school we hope to go to next year. Thursday, May 13, we are all looking forward to a visit to Barnum. We are very sad, our Mascot Sly Cy the alligator has died. The President for this week is John Sison. Book chairmen are Jackie Paulus and Mike Jackson. Room Chairmen are Larry Back, Francis Von Maur. Secretary, Mary Seyferth. Reporters, Linda Kestel and Peter Russ.

Southfield High Student Council Officers Elected

Campaigning for Student Council offices at Southfield high school came to a climax Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

At a Wednesday assembly, candidates were given a chance to make their campaign speeches. All candidates did so and each was assisted by a speech from his campaign manager.

There was a noticeable and pleasant lack of "mud-throwing"—perhaps the candidates were mindful of the adage, "He who throws mud loses ground."

Thursday was voting day, and 516 students voted. Bob Quirk was re-elected president by the closest margin in school history. Maya Ritting was elected vice president; Lou Wilson, secretary; and Gary Evans, treasurer.

Evans, a freshman, carried almost the entire freshman class, and a good part of the other students, too; an up and coming boy. Despite the closeness of the running, no animosities developed between any of the candidates or their supporters.—ERIC LEIGHTON.
