News About GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP 303—PIERCE
 At the last two meetings these Brownies have had the help of two Senior Program Aides. Several of the girls have been studying how to help out in troops and are now ready to put what they have learned into practice. Sally Hansen showed the girls how to use a jackknife and how to lay a trail. The Troop visited Dodge Park at 13 1/2 Mile road and all the girls watched Sally put her skills to work. At another meeting Barbara Ritter helped the girls in their singing. The troop had a cookout in Springfield Park on June 19. The following adults have accompanied the troop on their outings: Mrs. Garnet Mills, Mrs. Russell Morry, Mrs. Floyd Taggart and Mrs. Charles James, who will be the leader of the troop next year.

TROOP 222—BALDWIN
 This troop took a trip through the Birmingham Eccentric plant recently and saw the paper being printed. Averil Allen, new member transferred from the Quorum Brownie Troop 354. Last week the girls visited the Leader Dog League in Rochester and watched one of the dogs perform for its master. Those adults accompanying the girls on the trip were: Mrs. Frederick Purdy, Mrs. Edwin Schwimmer, Mrs. John Bloodhart, Mrs. Harold Webster and Mrs. Ralph Cowan. The troop saw exhibits at the Community House on "Troop Day" last week.

TROOP 355—BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE
 Sally Nickerson reports that the last meeting of this troop was called to order by the president, Fritz Harris. The girls discussed the coming Mothers' tea and some girls finished the invitations. The troop decided that instead of a play they would have a fashion show. The girls arranged a table for "Troop Day" which was held in the Community House last week.

TROOP 331—VAUGHAN SCHOOL
 Saturday, May 22, is the day set for the troop's Scoutable. The troop decided that instead of a play they would have a fashion show. The girls arranged a table for "Troop Day" which was held in the Community House last week.

TROOP 333—BALDWIN
 For one of the requirements of the Dramatics badge, the girls did charades and pantomimes. They had two dinner parties recently, one at the home of Meta Reynolds where "Sloppy Joe" were served, after which the girls went to Cranbrook to see nature films. The other party was potluck at the home of Sue Schaefer. After this the girls attended the Ridge-dale Players to see "Seventeen." The girls made and sold fudge at the Baldwin school fair. Barbara Sommers and Nancy Williams made their fudge. At Christy Schlad's, Barbara Shannon and Stephanie Smith were at Kitty Doyle's, Judy Akert, Mary Kamin and Pauline Craig worked in George Saunders' kitchen. Sue Hefke and Jane Buchanan worked at Jane's house. Juanita Brown and Patty McFarland were at Sandy Haack's, and Sue Schaefer, Penny Hewitt and Kennel Cowan were at Meta Reynolds'. This week Sue Hefke and Pauline Craig are planning a nature hunt at the Craig home.

TROOP 368—ADAMS
 This troop gave a dramatics program last week. Each patrol put on a play for the benefit of the other patrol—to fulfill a second class requirement in the dramatics field. One play was "The Pudding Pan", patrol leader Judy Storey, the other was "The Plain Princess", patrol leader Joan McDonald.

TROOP 428—HOLY NAME
 One father and all the mothers of this Brownie troop attended the "Ply-Tip" ceremony last week. Brownies who "flew-up" and will enter the Girl Scout program next fall are: Susan Allen, Virginia Beilin, Jane Canever, Christine Dekroiser, Margaret Duffy, Patricia Hausfeld, Mary Johnson, Mary Ann Jordan, Kathleen Kelly, Maryanne Lillie, Fleurette Lourin, Sally Lynch, Clara Morris, Carolyn Roiser, Mary Seibert and Margaret Young. Members of Girl Scout Troop 320 sponsored the new Scouts. Troop 320, together with their leaders Mrs. Arthur Thornbury and Mrs. Glen Hogsten, also decorated the tea table with spring flowers and served strawberry punch and cookies to the girls and guests. Mrs. Victor Kanever a mother of Troop 428 was in charge of the tea. The troop is planning a picnic June 7 which will terminate group activities until next fall.

Osteopathic Aux'y Planning Convention
 Oakland County Osteopathic Auxiliary plans for the fall convention will be made when the group meets May 20 at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Sidaris, 1771 Earlmont, Berkley for a pot luck dinner. Committee members from this area include Mrs. J. A. Walker, treasurer; Mrs. George Renon, program chairman, and Mrs. H. E. Jones, planning committee. A program of lectures in flower arrangements was given after the business meeting.
